From the CEO...

As I was sorting out my sewing room to get ready for the all the projects to finish at the last minute which I know none of you do, I decided there are not enough hours in the day. Now I have them in stacks so I will remember to do them in the right order. Am I turning into a Quilt Diva? I look like one and now that I am home bound for a while I am acting like one. Oh well, it could be worse. My husband could be waiting for his first good meal in two and a half weeks.

Hope you are taking time to read the membership book. We have so many new programs ahead. Last month I put the program for November Day chapter as October. I guess I was so looking forward to Susan Gilmore quilts and Lois's mother's quilts. They will be wonderful. The Starlighters are giving us a 40 quilt family trunk show. Wow! I think by the time I get to January I will need the program to organize my quilt room. Trouble is I need it now.

Thank you for signing up to volunteer for the show. We are all busy and sometime it is hard to find more time but all of you are generous. If you stay for an afternoon or part of a morning and your shift is up, ask if you can help in another way. Please don't forget to see the show. We can always use help setting up on Friday and taking down on Saturday.

We are sending in the Fons and Porter subscriptions so get yours in as soon as possible to Linda Sappington. She is in the book. We also belong to the Heartland Quilt Network and every member can find information on guilds that belong to this in the 5 state area. The web site is www.heartlandquiltnetwork.com. If you would like to know more about the quilt guilds and when they meet, Becky Covington writes the newsletter four times a year and can inform you as well as I. It also tells the lectures and workshops that are being done for the year in these groups.

Last but not least, if you were lucky enough to get in on the bare bones retreat think of the rest of us when you are all enjoying all the wonderful food and sewing together. We will be anxious to hear about your weekend. If you need information or have questions about the trip, let Beth Dessem know.

The number one seam ripper specialist,

Suzanne

November Programs

Day Chapter - Nov. 6, 2006 Meeting will be a trunk show. Susan Gilmore is known for her beautiful hand appliqué and Lois Hassinger will be showing some of her mother's and family quilts along with a crazy quilt she is working on.

Starlight Piecemakers - Our Nov 2nd meeting will feature a Mid-Mo native Marieta Lamers. Marieta is currently living in Moberly MO. She has a love of quilting but is not a quilter herself. Her mother was an avid quilter and quilt collector. Marieta has inherited her mother's extensive collection of over 60 quilts. Marieta will bring a portion of her mother's collection the oldest dates to 1900. This show will focus on the quilts her mother actually quilted. She will bring approx 20-25 quilts. So come, relax, take a break for the craziness of the getting ready for the quilt show and enjoy Marieta's quilt collection.

We will be having our holiday dinner Dec 7. We will be letting you all know who needs to bring what in the next newsletter. The evening group will be providing the meat for the dinner. We will also have a special guest group performing. More information to follow...

Day Chapter

Hello Day-Chapterers!

November - Quilt Show I hope you are as excited as I am. Don't miss the opportunity for fellowship as we work together to make it all happen. We need everyone. It will be fun seeing what your fellow quilters have been doing. We have a lot of talented artists.

Our October speaker brought such a big trunk show; Elaine Elliott has tried a lot of different styles. I am looking forward to see the pinwheel and blossom quilts from the workshop. Everyone enjoyed learning how to adapt the given pattern. She was a patient teacher.

In our day board meeting, we discussed simplifying the guidelines for the Friendship block participation. These changes will be published in the newsletter (see page 4) so you can add it to your membership handbook. Hopefully everyone will continue to participate. You may choose to participate in block drawing or just make a block for fun. We also discussed plans for Christmas luncheon. If you have something you would like to suggest for the day chapter, please tell one of the officers or committee chairs. We are always open to new ideas or activities that you want to do again.

December Luncheon begins at 12:00. Bring a dish to share. Plates, plastic ware and drinks will be provided. Drinks will be coffee, water and iced tea.

A - F main dish
G - R fruit, salad, cheese or bread
S - Z dessert

Take time to quilt,
Nancy Antonio

Starlight Piecemakers Chapter

The leaves are turning, fall is truly upon us. But before the holidays and family dinners are a part of life we have the "Trail of Stars Quilt Show." On the next page is a little story of a quilter and her husband. I hope you enjoy it.

I hope you are looking forward to the quilt show as I am. This one event needs all the help you can provide the guild. It is a way to show all our talents and skills. And is also a money maker for the Guild.

What did you think of "Pushing the Limits" row by row? I know I am partial to this small group. They are a wonderful group of ladies with style and talent. I enjoy each member of this group. Thanks to each one in this special group for presenting the October Starlight Piecemakers program and a special thank you to Jackie Berry for overseeing "Pushing the Limits" and for being our speaker. Did you like having the show portion of the Guild Meeting first and the business part second?

Our November meeting will be Marieta Lamers, and we will have a small reception after the meeting. If you can help with deserts please let Maria DeLamatre or Mary Petersen know.

December will be a very special Christmas Dinner. An evening with friends. Quilters get along so well with one and another, the friendships are stronger because we are all interested in how we can put thread and cloth together. We will also have the MOSS Choir to entertain us.

Be well and safe.
Your quilting friend,
Patti

Happy Thanksgiving

A Quilt Show Story

A quilter was talking to her husband about the upcoming quilt show and he asked what she planned on buying. The quilter replied, "I don't plan to buy anything. I just plan to look." The husband responded with "I've heard that tune before and if you would like I'll go with you to the quilt show." The husband went along to the quilt show but he was not real sure he wanted to see a lot of homemade blankets. The husband stood at the entrance and saw about sixty million quilts. He turned to run, but the quilter caught him and brought him back. She said "you'll live through it," as she was holding him tightly, wiping the sweat off his brow, to comfort him. "You'll be just fine," she said as she led him in. The husband said, "There are too many quilts!" The quilter responded that's why we're here, to see the quilts," she explained. "Do I have to see them all?" asked the husband. "Every one," she said. "All right, but I won't look at all the stitches," he replied hoping to prevent her from asking him to examine each quilt as he knew she would. They viewed many quilts, and when they got to the next quilt and the quilter said "This is a Log Cabin quilt," The husband said "I don't see any cabins and I looked carefully too. There are no houses built of straw, brick or sticks." "I should have left you home," she said.

The husband said "I have seen a book called "Quilt in a Day," A day? "A day's good." The quilter explained most of these quilts were not made in a day, not even a weekend. "We can just look at the day quilts," he said. "They'll be just the right size for day beds," he said hoping like mad. "We'll look at them all," she said. "Every stitch." The husband and the quilter looked at all the quilts and most of the stitching enjoying the show. At least one of them was enjoying the show.

The quilter had new gadgets from the boutique and was full of inspiration the next day so she started a new quilt. You ask what the husband did the next day? He took a nap.

News from the Board

The following motion was approved at the October executive board meeting:

- ◆ A motion to include a memorial page in the BTQG membership handbook listing members that have passed away during the past year.

Clip to add to page 10 of your membership handbook.

DAYTIME FRIENDSHIP QUILT GROUP

Guidelines

1. The drawing for the monthly winner from the "pot" of active Friendship Quilt Group (FQG) participants takes place during regular BTQG meetings. In the event the "pot" is not available, the drawing may take place at the Board meeting the following week.

2. BTQG members may become active participants by making at least one block within the BTQG year (July-June). A participant's name will be entered for each block completed. Members may choose to make blocks and not participate in the drawing. Their names will not be placed in the "pot".

3. The winner chooses the pattern, color, and fabric used in the blocks. The winner of the drawing should arrive at the next Guild meeting early to give out patterns or receive blocks.

Participants sign the record sheet, and make a block according to directions and return it to the winner at the next meeting. The winners shall keep an accurate list of blocks returned and shall give the list to chairperson by the meeting after blocks are due.

4. A previous winner becomes eligible to receive blocks after one calendar year. In July of each year the participant who has accumulated the most points will be awarded a quilt.

Participants who did not wish to participate in monthly drawing will be eligible for consideration in the July awarding of a quilt.

5. The friendship block program is separate from all other drawings.

Appletree Quilting & Viking Center Guild Appreciation Discount For BTQG Members

On the day of each of the two Booneslick Trail Quilters' Guild monthly meetings, Appletree Quilting & Viking Center will offer guild members a 20% discount on non-sale items. This includes fabric (1/2 yard min.), notions, books, and machine accessories. (Machines, sewing cabinets, and class fees are excluded).

Please present your BTQG membership card to take advantage of this offer.

2006 BTQG QUILT SHOW “A TRAIL OF STARS “

“A Trail of Stars” – 2006 Quilt Show Updates November 18-19, 2006

You are all doing such a great job with the quilt show. Thanks so very much for all your encouragement and all the work you have done so far. Each BTQG show has raised the bar for the next one. But more than anything else.....the most exciting part for us in producing this event.....it is the opportunity to show you off and all the beautiful work you do. I've seen just glimpses of some of the things being done for silent auction, boutique and the galleries and I find myself somewhat overwhelmed with your artistry and your generosity.

Quilt Raffle Tickets

You all are doing an unbelievable job of disbursing quilt raffle tickets for donations to the Rainbow House. I don't have the exact count, but approximately 300 tickets have been disbursed already. Cindy Green is the “Queen”.....she has distributed 150 of them as far away as California and Hawaii!! Whew!!

Volunteers

Lots of volunteer vacancies were filled by you at the October meetings---thanks so much!! However, there are still several remaining. Check with Dawn at the November meetings, because we have to fill all of them during our November programs. But just to remind you, you don't have to wait until the guild meeting to sign up; feel free to send Dawn an email (dawne86@hotmail.com) or give her a call (573-234-1540) and she will be so delighted to write your name in for you.

“It's Not A Quilt Until It's Quilted”---Bettina Havig

There are still some spaces left in Bettina's class. It is Saturday, November 18, 9:00 a.m.-12 noon, First Presbyterian Church, 16 Hitt Street, Columbia, Missouri. I've included a copy of the registration form in this newsletter, you can download a registration form from the BTQG website homepage, and I will have extra copies with me at the November chapter meetings.

Quilt Show T-Shirts

We will have some medium, large and xlarge long sleeve, quilt show t-shirts at the November meetings.....we will also have some for sale in the boutique.

Entry Forms

You can download the entry form from our BTQG website---just click on the “Quilt Show 2006” tab and then the “Download Entry Form Here.” Try really hard to get them submitted by November 1---it will help Jackie immensely in completing the layout of the show---Jackie will also have copies available at our November guild meetings.

To make the quilt show program easier to produce, we would love it if you would type the description of your quilt in a Word document and email it to Jackie (jjoberry@missvalley.com). Then, print the Word document, staple the printed copy to the entry form and mail them to Jackie at the address noted on the form.

Props

From Patti – If you have any of the following items and can part with them for a weekend please bring them to the quilt show at the Expo on November 17th. You can bring your props with your quilt. Please be sure and put your name on your items.

I am looking for baskets, empty clay pots. (That is pots without dirt or a live plant in them.) I would like all your greenery and artificial fall plants to put in the baskets and clay pots. If you have any gourds or pumpkins, real or artificial, grape vine wreaths or fall ribbon I can use, please bring them.

Plant stands, and yard ornaments are in great demand. I would also like some weathered garden tools to put around. Do you have a wagon or cart we can use?

Room dividers would also be great if you have any. Do you have an old door or old windows we can use. I would like to decorate them with fall wreaths, throws and quilts.

We also need small chairs and tables to use in our decorating. The chairs will have a ribbon across them to prevent people from sitting in them.

I want to thank all that have made a commitment to help with the props and to those who have volunteered their possessions.

Let's Get Acquainted- Friendship Block Winners

NAME: Treva Friesz

CHAPTER: Day Chapter

MONTH: October

Background and Family: I was born in Brunswick, MO to Herbert and Myrtis Arp. I had six brothers and one deceased. I married Don Friesz January 6, 1971 and have lived in Keytesville, MO. We are farmers and we have no children. I went to cosmetology school and had a beauty shop until 1977 when a health issue happened.

How did you get interested in quilting: I used to watch my mother quilt and she did beautiful work. But I was never interested in quilting. As I got older I got interested and my first piecing and quilting was done when Anna Hughes gave a class on doing a sampler quilt. She was a good teacher and now I am hooked.

Tell about your favorite project: My sampler quilt when Anna Hughes gave a class on how to quilt. It was a lot of fun and I was hooked from that day on. Thanks Anna for getting me going.

What are some of your other interests: I am very active in the Methodist church to which I belong and love to do things for the church. I belong to DAR and also am in Preceptor Delta Omega Sorority.

Choice of a Friendship Block: I have chosen the True Love's Knot. One reason was I did two blocks for Connie Gresham and thought they were very neat. I had never seen that pattern. I was very impressed with it. Thanks Connie for doing that pattern.

There was no Friendship Block winner from the Starlight Piecemakers chapter for October. Hsiao-Mei Wiedmeyer was the Day Chapter winner for July but due to an obligation she had was not able to supply her information in time for the August newsletter. Her interesting story follows.

NAME: Hsiao-Mei Wiedmeyer

MONTH: July

Background and Family Information: I was born in China, grew up in Taiwan but lived in Columbia since 1977. I worked as a project director of the Diabetes Diagnostic Laboratory at the University Medical School until I retired. My husband Ray was a farm boy from Wisconsin and we met at the University of Detroit where we both did our graduate work in Chemistry. We have been married for 35 years. We have a daughter who is a medical student at McGill University at Montreal, Canada and a son who is a business banker for Regions Bank in Columbia.

How did you get interested in quilting: I fell in love with American quilts almost as soon as I came to the USA. It is a form of art I have never seen before. Chinese also make quilts but the ones I have seen are mostly functional rather than artistic. I made six baby quilts by hand in 1978-79 when I stayed at home at the birth of my son but I didn't touch quilting again until I retired in 2003. I picked up where I left off 25 years ago and enjoying making quilts using all the newest equipment and techniques.

Tell about your favorite project: My optimal quilt project would be a personal flower garden. I want to plant a garden; take pictures of flowers from the garden; digitize, appliqué or embroidery the flowers into quilt blocks. All the skills I am learning now are preparing for this special "Hsiao-Mei's Garden" quilt.

What are some of your other interests: Both my husband and I love to travel. We have traveled to all seven continents in the world and over 50 countries (including Antarctica and Galapagos Island). When we are in Columbia, we enjoy biking and dancing.

Choice of a Friendship Block: The Indigo Kimono quilt was adapted from the book "Japanese Inspiration" by Janet Haigh. This design was traditionally used for a way to use old, worn kimonos to make new ones. I like its simple and elegant design and oriental flavors. I was very pleased to find sash fabrics that contain Chinese characters with red seals stamp all over. It ties well with the red and gold border. I hope everyone enjoys making it.

Saturday, November 18, 2006, 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 noon

First Presbyterian Church, 16 Hitt Street, Columbia, Missouri

It is called a quilt in anticipation of quilting, but they never seem to tell you how to get those lovely designs onto your quilt top. Where do they come from, how to design them, how to make them fit the spaces? These are the questions to which the workshop will seek answers. Students will look at feathers and cables, how to gauge borders, original designs, potential design sources and more. They will explore means of transferring the design motifs to fabric, marking tools and types of batting and threads. While information may be applied to machine quilting, the thrust here is for hand quilted projects.

SECRET SISTER INFORMATION FORM

The Secret Sister activity is optional, but lots of fun! The idea is to pass anonymous small gifts to your Secret Sister throughout the weekend, and one big gift that will be given out Sunday morning at breakfast. The idea is not to spend a lot of money (no more than $15.00 on the "big" gift), but to give tokens of fun and friendship. Bring your big gift wrapped, with your Secret Sister's name on the outside and yours on the inside.

Please complete the following questionnaire so your Secret Sister can use this information. You will receive your Secret Sister's information in your retreat packet.
