From the CEO...

Well I am back from my trip to California and trying to get into my old routine and adjust to the Midwest Time Zone. I had a wonderful visit with my son, his wife (yes I am a nice mother in law!) and my grandchildren. One of the best events was teaching my eight year old grand-daughter Mary Helen to sew. She was so enthusiastic and caught on quickly to sewing straight lines. Her frequent comment was "sewing is so much fun." This made me think about my own enthusiasm for quilting. I have often said there is nothing about piecing a quilt I don't like. Now quilting a quilt—that is a different story so thank heavens for our long arm quilters. I hope to always have an eight year old's enthusiasm for quilting and wish the same for all of you quilting friends.

I am sorry I missed both of the guild meetings this month but have heard they were both very enjoyable. I am looking forward to the June annual meeting and hope you have all sent in your registration for this popular event. Let's give the new BTQG officers a big welcome and have a good time with great food and a very special speaker. Thanks to Suzanne Henage and her committee for all the hard work on the annual meeting.

I am down to the final inning on my term as CEO so if you have any comments, concerns, or complaints please let me know. And to quote my grand-daughter again—not only is "sewing so much fun" being involved in the guild is so much fun too. Kay June Programs . . .

Day Chapter— For our June meeting we will have Edith Leeper presenting a program on her family quilts. She is a long time guild member and quilt lover. Don't miss this opportunity to view some great quilts and hear their stories.

Starlight Chapter— Since the Starlight Chapter is not meeting this month due to the annual meeting on June 9th, and in order to assist our incoming Starlight officers, we are asking for your help. We need to know what programs you would like to see at your chapter meetings in the future.

Helpful information would include the kind of quilts you enjoy, the designers of patterns you like to make, quilting websites that you frequent, the names of quilters in the guild or in the community whose talents could benefit members and/or something new and different in the quilting world you have seen on one of your journeys.

It is not the responsibility of the officers of the guild to shoulder the sole responsibility of program planning. Not only is your input important, they need it, plain and simple. Since a new slate of officers are on the horizon, now is a good time to let your program wishes be known. The new officers will appreciate your help and the programs will be just what you want to see.

Starlight Chapter: No June meeting.

Day Chapter: 6/2/08—1:00 P.M.*

Precluded by Annual Meeting 6/7/08.

*Doors Open at 9:00 a.m.

Day Chapter

June is officially my last month as Day Chapter president so I first want to say that I could not have had a better board. They cheerfully and efficiently did all that was asked, required, or wished for. I hope that my successor, Dawn Heese, will have such a supportive board to see her through her year in office. So, a great big THANK YOU to my board.

Here's just a word or two about the COUNTY FAIR in July. What better month for a picnic than July (indoors of course)? But the real fun will be in trying your hand at "Quilto" or Fabric Sudoku. There will be table space for anyone wanting to bring produce for sale (thank goodness it will be too early for zucchini) or jams, jellies, cakes, bread, cookies... or crafts; it will be our own private little 'farmers market.' And, you keep the money for the sales, it's not a fundraiser. There will much more about this in the next newsletter—this is just a heads up. We will need to know if you want table space so be thinking about that. Bettina

[From] 71 Reasons to buy Fabric:

#35. Because, this fabric just talks to me and calls my name.

Reminder — The membership form included in this newsletter will be used to compile information for the publication of the 2008-2009 BTQG Membership Directory and Handbook. It is important that every member, new and old, complete the form and submit it with their dues to ensure that we have accurate information. Completed forms and dues may be left with a guild representative at the Membership Table at guild meetings or mailed to BTQG, P.O. Box 542, Columbia, MO 65205-0542. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Starlight Piecemakers Chapter

This is my last newsletter-note as the Starlight President. Jan has done a fantastic job putting it together. I want to thank her and all of the chapter and guild boards for all the work they have done. My board has been great. They were all enthusiastic and had great ideas. Thank you all so much!

For those who are not on any board for next year - I highly advise you to volunteer for something in YOUR guild. Not because the board needs help (which they always do), but because you will get more out of your guild - friendships, knowledge, experience and fun! Friendship and fun are the greatest benefit.

Our last meeting was like a family get together - because it was a family get together! Linda Sappington and her family brought in four generations of family quilts. There was so much history there. Many of our guild members knew the quilters around Ashland who did the quilting. It was a fun and relaxed meeting. It was nice to see Linda's husband, Dave, Linda's mom, and the rest of her family there to support her. One of the best blessings we have is our family.

Again - I want to thank-you all for a great year! You have a great team coming up - I'm am positive 2008-2009 will be an awesome year. Carol #69. A large fabric stash is the sign of a creative mind.

Boone County Historical Society Exhibit

The Boone County History Museum is hosting our exhibition of antique and vintage quilts May 17 through June 29th. The quilts are all owned by guild members and many are family quilts. In part, this is to help celebrate our thirty-year anniversary. The hours for the museum are: Wednesday-Sunday 12:30 -4:30. If you plan to go to view the quilts please plan to honor their donation/admission. We provided the quilts but they provided the staff and apparatus to hang the quilts. And, there's much more to see than just our quilt exhibition. This is a small way for us to contribute to this local and important museum.

HELP WANTED:

Wanted: committed and willing members to take on the chairmanships of standing committees. The standing committees are listed in the membership booklet (but since most never read it there) they are for the executive board:

Historian, Librarian, Service project, Publications, Quilt Show and Retreat. Some have already been filled this year but help is always welcome and you can move up to chair next time.

I have some names from people who were not able to run for an office but expressed an interest in committees... I wrote them all down while calling for the nominating process. The CEO makes the final decision about who will chair committees.

For the Chapters the committees are: Membership, Hospitality, and Friendship Blocks (that's for the monthly drawing). If you wonder what your duties would be I suggest you call the person serving in that task now or call the current chapter presidents.

It will get the new membership year off to a really good start if the chairmanships are all set and the work can begin so if you are interested, let Kay Grebing know.

Thanks, Bettina

TIPS, TOOLS & TRICKS

BY Janice Haralson

This tip is for quilters who need more light on their projects. At the Chicago quilt show, I found a product called the Bendable Bright Light. This light uses an adhesive, non-magnetic bracket which you attach to the side of your sewing machine. It has a flexible arm which then directs the light where you need it. It uses no counter space and puts white light directly on those hard to see places. It is great when you are sewing on dark fabrics or matching seams. It will give you 100,000 light hours, uses 120 volts, and is an energy efficient LED. The adhesive mount that holds the light on the side of the machine will not harm the machine electronics. No batteries are needed. It comes with an eight foot cord and brackets that you can fasten to the back of your machine so the cord is out of the way.

You can purchase this from: Dream World Inc., Bonners Ferry, ID 83805, phone # 866-64-2363 or from www.bendablebrightlight.com. The price is $49.95. The cost of an additional machine bracket kit (so you can use the lamp on two machines) is $9.95.

Another quilt tip on lighting: take along a light bulb with high wattage to put in lamps in motel or hotel rooms so you can see better for sewing.

Editor's Note: I also bought a Bendable Bright Light while in Chicago. It is worth its weight in gold!!!

Quilt Market Report

Thanks to everyone who came in early to sew before the May meeting. We have one more time to do this, so please come and join us on June 2 at 9:00. You will need to bring your machine and equipment. We'll have several different projects for you try.

Items received to date:

Pot holders:	goal 75/received 78
Scrap bags:	goal 30/received 44
Xmas stockings:	goal 40/received 29
Machine covers:	goal 30/received 14
Tote bags:	goal 30/received 13

If you haven't tried to make a tote bag or machine cover, you should give it a try. They were easy and fun to make. I'm sure everyone has a stash of Christmas fabric they could share with us and turn it into a stocking. There is no particular pattern that we are asking you to use, but I do have a few patterns available if you need one.

Kay Grebing will be arranging a class for table runners when she returns from California. Watch for the information and come help. Everyone always enjoys these sessions.

Pins are Dangerous!

Many of you have probably heard that at a recent Row by Row meeting, Anne Coleman accidentally swallowed a pin which lodged in or near her voice box. Surgery was required to remove it. This is a wake-up call to all of us. We must not put pins in our mouths. All it took for Anne to swallow that pin was for her to start to talk to someone and woosh down it went and it stuck and it hurt@#&*! What an ordeal for her. Not only did she have to have her stomach pumped (because she had eaten breakfast) before she could undergo surgery, she had to spend the night in the hospital because of the irritation to her throat. Please pass the word. Pins are dangerous and they don't belong anywhere near the mouth.

Sandy Moritz is our Day Chapter Friendship Block Winner!

This is what Sandy has to say: "I have been quilting for about 9 years and have been a member of the guild for almost 5 years. I come from a quilting family, so am following family tradition. I also enjoy crocheting, reading, genealogy research, and crafts in general. At the moment my block choice is the Greek Cross and am still trying to decide on colors." Sandy Moritz

As you now know

Your return on any items you place on consignment in the Quilt Market this year is 70%; 30% goes to the guild. At the last show, the hot ticket consignment items were table runners (seasonal and otherwise), placemats, purses, small wall hangings, knitted scarves and block collections to name a few. This might be the year to make an assessment of some of those UFO items to see if they might be something you might put in the Quilt Market as a consignment item. In any event, it is not too early to think about items you may want to start making. Last year several members made in excess of $125.00 on items they made and they helped the guild too. Forms will be available for consignment items toward the end of summer.

Meet Kathy Ellsworth- Starlight Chap. Friendship Block Winner!

My name is Kathy Ellsworth. My husband and I currently live on the south side of Columbia with our Bernese Mountain Dog Cleo. She is 2 years old and loves to hang out with us in the yard and also loves to go wherever we go.

Rick and I moved to Columbia in 1982 with our two daughters Elizabeth and Cheryl and our German Shepard, Hilda. We love Columbia and have enjoyed raising our family here. Hilda has gone on and our daughters are now grown and married. Elizabeth is married to John Tummons and they live in Lynn, MO. Both John and Elizabeth are teachers and have two children Sam 3 and Sadie 1. Cheryl is married to John Long and lives in Jefferson City. Cheryl is also a teacher and her first project was an apron sewn on my grandmothers treadle sewing machine. I sewed all my projects on that machine and later purchased an electric machine in 1975. I have always been interested in quilting but have not pursued very many projects that required quilting. The items that I have done include hot pads, bags and misc. small projects. My favorite piece is an embroidered quilt that was handed down to me from my husband's mom (Liz). She had started it from a kit when Rick was about 2 years old. She decided to give it to me when I expressed an interest in finishing it. Mom had all the embroidery done and I put all the pieces together. I started to quilt it but soon sought the help of our church ladies quilting group at Community United Methodist Church. Many of these ladies are still quilting today and have been my mentor in so many ways. This quilt continues to remind me of the blessing and joys shared with my mother-in-law and the many friends that I have gained as a family through our church.

Other interests include stamping, cooking, walking and gardening. Most of all I enjoy being with my family and grandchildren.

The Old Nine Patch*

By Phyllis C. Michael

Up in our attic there's an old faded quilt,
It's one of the nine patch kind;
It's been up there for many years, I guess,
But it isn't hard to find.
You open the lid of the old brown trunk,
The one that was Grandma Kate's,
And there on the top neatly folded away
The nine patch patiently waits.
I'm sure that quilt dreams that some day
once more
It will cover some happy pair.
For someone with kind loving hands one day
Tenderly put it there.

It was made from leftover calico,
I'm sure I could pick out each block
That each neighbor brought to join to the rest,
I remember who wore each frock.
And oh, I remember the day they all came,
Mom called it a quilting bee.
She set up the frames by the living room
stove
And pinned on the lining, you see;
The one she had made from the bleached salt
sacks,
Next the batting and the beautiful top...
There were chairs for twelve and soon they were filled
With folks who had time to stop.

What fun they all had and how the time
flew,
But the stitches were even and neat,
For each woman knew her stitches would show
When the nine patch quilt was complete.
Such laughing and talking, such quick nimble
hands!
How I wanted to help them sew!
But my job was to thread the needles and such
Till my eight year old hands should grow.
Then came the dinner and oh, what a feast,
Sauerkraut and dumplings and pork
And plenty of pie, yes pumpkin and mince
And cake to eat with a fork.

Up in our attic there's an old faded quilt,
It's one we don't use, you see. . . .
But what can a store-bought blanket tell
Of the joys of a quilting bee?
