From the CEO...

It was such a pleasure to see so many guild members at the annual meeting. Suzanne and her committee did a great job of honoring the charter members, the speaker was very entertaining and her show and tell was spectacular. As a non-applique quilter and a non-hand quilter I was truly awed. I will not applique bugs on my quilts however and even the snakes and snails are questionable for me! I like the beginning and the ends of events and the annual meeting represents both to me—the end of a great year for me as your CEO and the beginning of a new year for the enthusiastic new board members. I think we are off to a great start in this year, a quilt show year. There is so much to look forward to: new programs, the fall speaker and workshop and of course, the quilt show.

Let's give the new officers a big welcome and lots of support. I have looked forward to writing my message each month but this is my last in the newsletter. I also look forward to Beth's messages and her ideas and leadership of the executive board. In closing, I again want to say thank you, thank you for all your support and for the opportunity to serve as your CEO. It has been my pleasure and I will see you at the guild meetings...Kay

JULY MEETING DATES

Day Chapter: July 7 —1:00 P.M.*

Starlight Chapter: July 10– 7:00 p.m.

*Doors Open at 9:00 a.m.

June Programs . . .

Day Chapter—

The County Fair will come to BTQG a month earlier than the Boone County Fair. Bring a brown bag lunch---for purposes of this meeting that shall be called a "picnic" lunch. There will be lemonade and ice tea available.

Come prepared to play QUILTO and to try your hand at fabric SUDOKU. There will be other quilt related fun, puzzles and shopping. Members are welcome to bring garden produce, jams, jellies, baked goods, crafts or other items for sale. (This is not a fundraiser and all proceeds belong to the seller.) If you need space for your sale items, please let Bettina know, email or phone. Each seller is responsible for their own cash and for minding their table.

The doors will be open at 9:00 a.m.

Starlight Chapter—

Ann Hazelwood of Patches, etc will present a program unlike one we have ever seen. She describes this program as "a line of quilt shows of quilts through the years." For your part, bring your antique quilts (anything up to 1980). Then, be prepared to learn about 100 years of quilting and find out where in time your quilts fits as Ann presents the quilts in chronological order. If anyone has any question how old their "old" quilts really are, now is the time to get an answer to that question.

Ann is also in the process of assembling data for a book she plans to publish on favorite restaurants of Missouri, what their specialities are, interesting facts about them and their location. Let's help her out and surprise her with a list of "our" favorites and as much information about them as we can muster. Call me if you have questions, otherwise, I'll collect your "favorites" information and we'll present them to her during the meeting.

Thanks. Priscilla.

Day Chapter

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU to all of you who graciously made a block for me as the retiring president of the Day Chapter. I have fondled them all and have begun to plan the sampler quilt that will include them. First I need to make a list of all the sizes. I hope to be able to share the top with you before fall. There is one orange and white block with no name. If that might be your block please let me know. The back of the quilt will have all the names and I wouldn't want to leave anyone out. Planning a sampler quilt with the wonderful blocks should keep me out of trouble most of the summer. Thanks again.

Upcoming Quilt Market Workshops with Kay!

Kay Grebing has graciously volunteered to do two more Quilt Market workshops this summer. Both will be held at the Appletree Quilting Center.

On July 14th the projects will be pillowcases and panel wall hangings. In August, at a date yet to be set, Star Crossed Table Runners will be the order of the day.

Kay says she can provide most of the fabric and batting but if you have fabric and batting to donate, please bring it along. You will need to bring your machine and sewing supplies. Appletree has a refrigerator and microwave if you want to brown bag it for lunch.

Kay also says that if you can't make it to a workshop and want to make some of the projects at home, just call her to make arrangements to pick up fabric and patterns.

There is no charge for Kay's Quilt Market workshops and they are always a lot of fun and informative. See you there!

Starlight Piecemakers Chapter

Hello and welcome to a new year at the BTQG. Priscilla's already been working hard at getting programs together for the upcoming year. If there is anything you need from the guild please let me or my board know. This is your guild and the board wants to accommodate you all we can.

The evening board members are: Priscilla Strube - VP; Susan Gilmore - Secretary; Jennie Amos and Bonnie Licklider - Membership; Joan Pottinger and Connie Foster - Friendship Blocks; and Nancy Jackson and Terri Crane - Hospitality.

Our meeting this month has been rescheduled for July 10, to accommodate the 4th of July weekend.

Please come and help us welcome our speaker- Ann Hazelwood. Ann is President/Owner of Patches in St. Charles, MO, founding member of the Professional Assoc. of Appraisers of Quilted Textiles, AQS Certified Appraiser and Appraiser for the "National Antiques Road Show." Ann's lecture will be from her new book "100 Things You Need to Know, If You Own a Quilt."

Stay cool and safe over the 4th.

Looking forward to serving you - see you on the 10th - Linda

Day Chapter Friendship Block

Alice Leeper won the June Friendship Block drawing. Her pattern will be from: "Save the Scraps, Great Quilts from Small Bits." More about Alice in August!

Lose Something???

Someone left a pink Satin Stitches bag in the bathroom at Peach Tree after the annual meeting with a $15.00 gift certificate enclosed. If you left this prize behind, please contact Janice Haralson at 573-443-8995 to make arrangements to retrieve it.

WHY?????

For a long time, I have been asking myself why quilters have so many unfinished projects. We all have them, we laugh about them, we vow to finish them and yet they are omnipresent. I have decided to conduct a survey of BTQG members on this question. If you have an answer [funny, serious or in between] as to how and/or why you think we quilters have ended up in this predicament, please send it to me at joehrle@centurytel.net or by snail mail. I will compile your comments and let you know the concensus of opinion on the subject. Maybe we can do something about this!!! jano

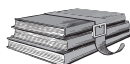

Boone County Historical Society Exhibit

Don't forget to visit our exhibit of antique and vintage quilts at the Boone County History Museum through June 29th. The quilts are all owned by guild members and many are family quilts. The hours for the museum are: Wednesday-Sunday 12:30-4:30. A small donation would be appreciated to help defray museum costs for the exhibit.

If you are the owner of a quilt or quilts on exhibit, thank you for the loan of your heirloom(s). When the exhibit closes the museum staff will strike the exhibit. Quilt owners may pick their quilts up after noon on June 30. I will be there to make sure the quilts get back to the correct owners.

LIBRARY NEWS

Well ladies, I thought I would give you a year end income and expense report on the library. This has been an extraordinary year thanks to all of your support.

We had $700 in magazine and book sales and purchases of $409 in new books for the library, with the difference being deposited in the general account of the guild. THE RESULT: no money budgeted for the library in 2007-2008 was used. The library was totally self-supporting and then some!

None of this would have been possible had you not donated those unwanted/unneeded magazines that everyone else obviously HAD TO HAVE! Cindy Green and I thank you for your support. It was a great fund raising experience.

Your Librarian, Barb Nichols

Earthquake Predicted for the Midwest!

On June 10th, I heard on the national news that a large magnitude earthquake is predicted for the midwest in the next 100 years. Hearing that, I thought reason #17 from the 71 Reasons to Buy Fabric was more than appropriate.

#17. When the Big Earthquake comes, all the quilt shops might be swallowed into the ground and never seen again. jano

TIPS, TOOLS & TRICKS

BY Janice Haralson

To keep your quilts fresh and keep them lasting forever (or until some child wears them out from dragging them around), I would like to recommend a fabulous product to help keep them that way, SOAK! The best part about this product-- you don't rinse it out! Just soak your quilt in a tub using a tiny bit of SOAK mixed with water (cold, warm, whatever) for 15 minutes, then squeeze the water out. Let dry and you are set.

Washing a BIG quilt? Put it inside a laundry basket (with holes) in the tub. Fill the tub with water and a teaspoon of SOAK. After 15 minutes, drain the water and gently squeeze the quilt inside the laundry basket. Then, lift the basket out of the tub, roll the quilt out where you can lay it out to dry. No stretching, no dripping-- just a nice, fresh quilt.

Soak is a biodegradable, phosphate-free formulation, gentle on fibers and on hands. It comes in three different fragrances: Flora, Aquae and Citrus and is also endorsed by Thimbleberries. It costs $14.95 for a 425 ml. bottle. You can get it from Dillards, Coltilde, Harper's Fabric and Quilt Shop in Overland Park, KS and other on-line fabric shops. It was created for yarn, but found to be great for quilts and fabrics.

ON ANOTHER NOTE: I would like to recommend that you consider doing some Postcard Quilts for the Troops. Penny Halgren, 7925 Pasadena Ave., La Mesa, CA 92941 is seeking Postcard Quilts for the troops for July 4th. If you would like to help her, you can find more information at www.FabricPostcards.com. She needs help and has examples of cards that can be delivered at this website. She sent several thousand last year and would appreciate more this year.

Correction: Kathy Ellsworth tells me that it was she and not her daughter who learned to sew on her grandmother's treadle machine. See her bio in last month's newsletter. Sorry Kathy! jano

Quilt Market Report

Here's a list of the projects that need more help. Remember, we are trying to get the bulk of our work done in the next 3 months to give everyone breathing space before the show in November. We're at least halfway there on these projects, so please help us get them completed.

| | | |
|------------------------|----------|-----------|
| Xmas stockings: | Goal: 40 | Rec'd: 29 |
| Kitchen towels: | Goal: 50 | Rec'd: 36 |

| Totes: | Goal: 30 | Rec'd 19 |
| Walker bags: | Goal: 30 | Rec'd: 14 |

Kay Grebing is scheduling some work days to make 3 projects. Please watch for the information on those days and bring your sewing machine and tools. It's fun, you'll learn something new and it will help get more items ready for our Quilt Market.

We'll have a few pillowcase kits ready for our July meeting. There will also be fabric on hand for anyone who would like to make a machine cover. These are very easy and you can be very creative in embellishing them.

Don't forget we will also take consignment items for the Quilt Market. Contact Jan Oehrle if you need the "how to" information for consignments.

Suzanne Henage is collecting the items for the silent auction part of our fund raising efforts at the quilt show and would like to hear from anyone planning on donating to that effort.

These are a few ways you can contribute to the quilt show and help keep our guild funded for the future. Money seems to be an issue with the guild right now and I'm sure no one wants to see our programs decline in quality or number. Thanks for your help. Carrol

NEWS FROM THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Board voted to change Item 2 of the Policies of the BTQG. It was amended to read as follows: Members of the Guild are not paid for presentations to the Guild membership. Members of the Guild may be paid to present workshops for Guild members for which a fee is charged.

The raffle quilt for the 2008 quilt show has now been completed by the 30's group and was quilted by Tammy Bush. The Board voted to earmark 50% of the proceeds from this raffle, up to an amount of $1,500.00, to go to the Columbia CASA Program (Court Appointed Special Advocates for Children).

The Board voted to increase the admission fee to the 2008 Quilt Show to $5.

Quilt Show Etiquette [Part I]*

With the BTQG quilt show on the horizon, it might be helpful, particularly to those new to quilting, to look closer into the quilt show world and the etiquette attendant thereto. Even if you aren't new to quilting, this might be a refresher course.

What is a "white glove volunteer" and why do we have them? The white gloved volunteer is on hand to assist the viewing public with seeing (and not touching) the quilts. When requested, they can turn the quilt to the back so that stitching and even embellishment can be seen from both sides. Some shows now provide disposable gloves to attendees so that quilts will not be accidentally touched because oils and perfumes from the skin surface can damage the fabric or workmanship.

What about photographing quilts? Quilt show etiquette dictates that you ask permission prior to taking photographs. With today's technological advances, at some quilt shows, you may even be asked to check your cell phone prior to entering the viewing area.

Food, drink and rolling bags? Food and drink are prohibited for obvious reasons and more and more shows are restricting the use of rolling bags and baby strollers to eliminate the possibility of damage to exhibited quilts.

Things to consider when deciding whether to exhibit a quilt. First, there is the question of whether to enter the quilt for "display only" or enter a judged or juried show. The BTQG show is a display only show but some of our members enter their quilts for judging in statewide and national shows. A "display only" quilt means that even if the show is judged, that particular quilt will be held out of any competition or award system. It will not be considered for any prize.

The processes of jurying and judging are often misunderstood by inexperienced show entrants. In our August Quilt-O-Gram we will discuss the differences in those processes. For those of us who attended the annual meeting and heard Suzanne Marshall talk about the comments she received back on the quilts she entered in the various shows, it is clear that for novices in the quilt show world, entering a quilt for judging can be daunting.

Service Project – Year End Report

As our time as Service Project Committee Chairs draws to a close, we wish to impart our accomplishments over the past year and thank you for all of your hard work.

This past year the Service Project Committee split its efforts. At our workday in February we made walker bags for nursing homes and 20 have been distributed. We have also saved several to be sold at the Quilt Market at the quilt show. Flannel memory pouches were made for hospitals to give to parents of stillborns. We also made baby quilts and distributed them to the following:

- * 16 Ronald McDonald House
- * 6 His Children, Cassville, MO
- * 2 Open Arms Pregnancy Resource Center
- * 5 Rainbow House
- * 24 Currently held for distribution.

We have some children's quilts that we are considering using as items for the Quilt Market. If you have given us a quilt in the last few months and specifically want it to be given to one of our community projects instead of placed for sale in the Quilt Market, please contact Carrol Lewis or Judy Gieselman with your preference. We do not keep a record quilt donors, so we have no way of contacting you individually.

We still have some quilt kits left. They will still be available for pick up at the meetings. Our time as committee chairs is ending and we're beginning to sort out all our wonderful goodies before the next person takes over. If you're in an interest group or on a committee that has a need for fabric, let us know and we'll arrange for you to peruse July's poolroom store. Thanks again for your hard work. Judy and Carrol

MARILYN SMITH WINS A 1st PLACE AT PADUCAH!

Our very own Marilyn Smith won first place in the applique bed quilts category at Paducah! This is what Marilyn has to say about her good fortune: "I was so surprised and excited. I never thought I would win anything. My quilt, 'Joy' is a raw edge applique quilt of 113 blocks made from 114 different fabrics. I used a lot of machine decorative stitches, thread painting and original geometric quilting. It was made entirely on a home sewing machine with the feed-dogs UP. My quilt is an adaptation of Karen Stone's 'Delirious' pattern. It is made of a rainbow of bright colors. It was such a wonderful experience to have won. My quilt, as well as my photo were in the July issue of American Quilter, and my quilt will be featured in the 2009 AQS Wall Calendar. Today I sent it off to 'Quilter's Newsletter Magazine' to be photographed. I don't yet know how they plan to use the image of my quilt. I am so excited about the attention my quilt is receiving."

Congratulations Marilyn! We are all looking forward to seeing your wonderful quilt at a guild meeting in the near future!

MOKA –Gathering in Columbia , June 27-28! !

BTQG is looking forward to welcoming MOKA members to Columbia for their June meeting.

On Friday, June 27 the group will meet on the University of Missouri campus to see a large selection of the collection of 50 Cornett family quilts that have recently been given to the university. Laurel Wilson, Associate Professor in the Department of Clothing and Textiles will talk about the collection. The meeting starts at 7:30 in Gwynn Lounge in Gwynn Hall. Gwynn Hall is on the white campus of the University of Missouri, just behind Memorial Union. Parking is available on any lot after 5 p.m. Walk through the Union arch and go to the right to Gwynn Hall.

On Saturday morning the meeting commences at 10:00 a.m. at the Boone County Historical Society Museum. If you haven't been there, the museum is located at 3801 Ponderosa St, just off the AC exit of Highway 63.

Deb Rowden will be the morning speaker. There will be a viewing of the exhibition of antique quilts from the private collections of members of the Booneslick Trail Quilters Guild on display in the gallery of the museum. In addition, there will be a guided tour of Maplewood, the historic home of a prominent 19th century Columbia physician.

Cost for the day including lunch is $12.50. If you attend, please bring show and tell for after lunch. The emphasis is on family quilts (limit to three, please).

If you are interested in attending this meeting, please notify Bettina that you plan to attend. E-mail: bettinaqc@socket.net or phone 573-449-1602.

2008 BTQG Quilt Show

Quilts Creating History One Stitch at a Time

Hello everyone.....here are some updates regarding the ongoing activities for the quilt show this year.

Flyers were sent out last week to lots of shops and guilds and, as in the past, we also sent a supply to all the vendors. It has already paid off--this morning I received about 4 new requests to be vendors at our show! I think we are very close to filling all our vendor spaces. Plus, we have purchased an ad in the upcoming issue of Country Register and also an ad for the issue that will come out this fall.

I brought the new hanging apparatus to the day group in June to demonstrate for them. I plan to have it at the evening meeting in July. It is a wonderful system that will be so much easier and safer. I thought it important to show you how your quilts will now be hung and also show you the method in case you are interested in volunteering to help set up for the show.

We will have the raffle quilt, the raffle quilt tickets and the machine raffle tickets available for you at the July day and evening meetings. We will also have some admission tickets for you to sell in advance or purchase yourself for friends and family. I believe we may also have samples of the new tee-shirts (both long and short sleeved) so you can choose your style and decide on a size. This year all the tee-shirt orders will be pay in advance.

See you in July and have an absolutely wonderful summer!! Mindy
