STARLIGHT PIECEMAKERS

Well, what do you think... is spring really here? Carol Gilliam Jones will present our April program. Carol lives in Lawrence KS. She has been a great quilt maker for many years. Her quilts have twice appeared on the cover of Quilters Newsletter Magazine. Carol and her co-author, Bobbi Finley, have researched the genre of quilts called TILE quilts for the past several years. They have found many antique examples, many of which are in prestigious museum collections. As they researched they also developed techniques for making Tile quilts. The fascination with the form has resulted in a new book published by C&T called Tile Quilt Revival. This promises to open new creative avenues to both traditional and non-traditional quilt makers. Don't miss her program. On the same afternoon as the evening program Carol is conducting a workshop on creating your own Tile quilt. The information is in the March newsletter or on our website. There are still a few spaces open. Contact Bettina for any additional information you need or to check available space.

Alice and Bettina

P.S. It's that time of year when the nominating committee does the all-important task of filling a slate of officers for the next membership year. Please consider how you can serve the guild that serves its members so well. Take an office or offer your help on a committee. This is a guild of almost 250. Where is all that talent hiding?

DAY CHAPTER

At our April Day Chapter meeting, Linda Foulk, from Specialty Quilts in Jefferson City, will present a program on Pre-cut Fabrics. Linda started her business doing long-arm quilting. She had a small shop and her fabric selection grew, until she found the need to expand her shop. She now has a large selection of fabric, notions, books, quilting supplies, and she offers numerous classes. Linda has a huge selection of pre-cut fabrics, which includes jelly rolls, charms, layer cakes, panels, and more.

Also, during the morning of April 5, one of Linda's instructors will be teaching a workshop to make a table topper using pre-cut fabrics. The information and registration form for this class was in the March Newsletter. Along with her program, Linda will have pre-cut paks available. If you are interested in purchasing some pre-cut paks, Linda is sure to have something you will like.

See you April 5.

C E O L E T T E R

A big thank you to Linda Sappington and her committee for a wonderful winter retreat. We are sorry that not everyone on the waiting list got in. Brenda Austin has agreed to head next year's retreat. So put it on your Feb. 2011 list of things to do.

Spring is a time for renewal and growth! Did you know that at least 35 people have been providing us with "titled" leadership roles? Many other people who don't hold an actual office also contribute to BTQG. Thank you interest group coordinators! And sweet treat providers! For April, we are providing a chance for you to help renew BTQG and grow! I hear the complaint that "the same people" are the ones who run things. Here is your chance. We would like YOU to volunteer for office or to chair or work on a committee. My dream would be that everyone would be on a committee so that each person has input on chapter meetings and other areas. Please be positive and say "YES" when our nominating committee person calls you.

Our guild is doing something new with the quilt show. Most noticeable at this time is the change of location and our new T-shirts. Bright summer colors to help advertise! The committee will continue but will need new volunteers soon. EVERYONE should be ready to volunteer their time in Nov.

Have you signed up for one of the workshops in April? Applique quilters don't miss the tile quilt workshop on the afternoon of April 1 at southern HyVee. Great new workshop room with a view. Also check out the chance to thank our presidents, Cindy and Alice, by making a block for their presidential quilts. They have done a wonderful job as our chapter presidents.

On a personal note I would like to thank you for all the cards I received at the time of my recent surgery. They really helped when everything hurt. I can't believe how much better I am feeling! We certainly need each other as cheerleaders in our lives.

Thank you to all who brought in batting. As soon as I got it I put it with a top/backing and got it out to another guild member to quilt. As of date we have these quilts ready to take to Rainbow and Soul house... 12 baby size, 3 of the Strip quilts, 1 Barclay square and 1 nine patch. ## MARCH FRIENDSHIP BLOCK-DAY

I am Brenda Austin, and am very pleased to be the Friendship Block winner in the Day Chapter for February. I have been retired from the University of Missouri System since December of 2002, having worked there for 34+ years. I retired from the President's Office, where I was Executive Assistant to the President and had responsibility for the staff in the President's Office. I had previously worked in the office of the Vice President for Administrative Affairs.

My husband, Clay, is a retired elementary school principal from Columbia Public Schools. We have been married 15 years, and together we have four grown children and six grandchildren. I have enjoyed doing sewing projects with 3 of our granddaughters.

My very first quilting experience was about 30 years ago when my Grandmother tried to teach my sisters, my cousin, and me to hand quilt. After that one project, the quilting went by the wayside until 2002, when I joined BTQG. A friend told me about the quilt retreat she was attending and told me I should join the Guild and go with her. I spent the weekend at retreat piecing my first quilt top. Following my retirement, I took up hand quilting again and began quilting with the ladies at my church. Since that time, I have been hooked on quilting!

I have chosen the pattern Card Tricks for my block. Soon after I began quilting, a friend did a quilt in this pattern. I liked it very much. I thought then, that I would make one, but "never got around to it!" I also love to play cards, so this quilt will remind me of all the fun times I share with my sisters and friends playing cards.

MARCH FRIENDSHIP BLOCK-STARLIGHT

Hi, my name is Barb Nixon, and I won the Friendship Block drawing for the Starlight Piecemakers' evening group. I have been sewing since high school, and sewed mostly clothing for many years. In 2000, my husband, Van, surprised me with a new sewing machine for Christmas, to replace my old one from 1970. I got a whole new interest in sewing with my new machine! Some friends of mine already belonged to BTQG, and invited me to join, and that was the beginning of my experiences in learning to piece and quilt. I also like to sew home dec projects, clothing for my 14-month-old granddaughter, Lila, and I have a "thing" for making purses (although mostly I just collect purse patterns). Both of my Grandmothers were very good seamstresses, and they would both be so interested in our new techniques, tools, and machines. My two daughters, Kelly & Liz, don't sew right now, but some day they may! I have worked at State Farm for 32 years. My other interests include bicycling, reading, and flower gardening. My husband and I will be preoccupied in 2010 with the renovating of his Great-Grandparents' Queen Anne Victorian home in Wooldridge, where we plan to move when completed.

The block I have chosen is the "Whirling Hexagon" paper-pieced block, which you can see at www.quilterscache.com. I made and won some of these blocks at the quilt retreat in 2009. I will supply the pattern and fabric for the background, which will be bleached muslin. The pieces you add will be 1930's prints. I want to make a twin-sized quilt for an antique bed to put in our "new" old house. Thanks for your participation!

It is time to show our thanks to Cindy Green for all her work this year as our President.

Cindy has chosen the friendship star in a reverse color way as the block for her President's quilt.
