DAY CHAPTER

Hello to all. May and spring are here. The birds are singing and flowers are blooming.

This meeting will be the Market Place Workshop. Before you know it, the Quilt Show will be here. The day starts at 9 and goes until 3 PM. You can come in at any time during the day and help out. Please bring your sewing machine and supplies. We will be making machine covers and any leftover kits. There will be tables around the outside of the room for sewing and 4 round tables in the center of the room for hand sewing and cutting of fabric.

Lunch will consist of mini ham and turkey sandwiches, chips and drinks. If you would like to bring something to share feel free. We will have plates, bowls, cup and napkins already there.

For anyone who makes a president's block for me Thank YOU from the bottom of my heart. Please don't worry about them being perfect. I love them and will make them all fit in the quilt, along with some you sent when I was hurt. That is the reason for the reverse pattern. You made them for me and I will cherish putting the stars together. Whenever I see the quilt, it will have a special place in my heart.

One last note: Are you thinking about being on the Day Chapter Board next year? Now is the time to step up and volunteer. Elections are in June. Please become an important part of the guild. For the Day Chapter Guild to function it needs 3 elective officers (president, vice president and secretary) and 3 appointed offices (membership, hospitality, friendship block) with 2 people in each of these positions. It is really a team effort. Please step up – You Can DO It!

STARLIGHT PIECEMAKERS

Maggie Bonanomi from Lexington MO will be our May speaker. The title of her program is "Wool & Old Textiles, the perfect answer to easy primitive projects"

Maggie feels very lucky that she gets to work at something she has a passion for. Maggie says she has made things forever--fabric, color and texture are her three design passions. She travels nationwide to share her passion. She loves meeting her readers face to face.

Maggie has two books in print and is feverishly working on the third. All of her books are from the KC Star line of books.

The first is With These Hands: 19th Century-Inspired Primitive Projects For Your Home and the second is Nature's Offerings: Primitive Projects Inspired by the Four Seasons. I am sure Maggie will have both for sale at the meeting.

She designs her own line of patterns for wool and other fabrics called "A Design from the Butternut House", and also creates designs for rug hooking. Her studio and shop, Simply Butternut, is in a charming 1830's log house not far from her home in Lexington, Missouri. She is open for special and seasonal occasions. She also does small custom designed workshops.

AND—In keeping with our yearlong effort to share and perfect skills Dawn Heese will be doing a pre-meeting demo on scalloped borders. We all know Dawn as a wonderful quilt maker who has recently entered the world of publishing and teaching. Lucky us, we can all benefit from her expertise and we can say we knew her "when". The demo will be at 6:30 at the far end of the meeting space. Don't miss it.

CEO LETTER

Happy Quilting! All this sun makes my fabric colors pop! They all calling me to forget about the yard and cut fabric instead of grass!

Seriously I have had a wonderful time talking with many of you about the guild. Our nominating Sharon Lawler and Joan Westcott almost have our slate full for you to vote on in June. The slate of officers is in the newsletter. You will notice we have a couple empty places. Please help us fill them at the May meetings. Several of you will need to step forward and join the team. With the quilt show this fall we will need everyone to contribute their energy and time. A big Thank you to Sharon and Joan!

A lot is going on in May. Come to the meetings for fun and fellowship. May 3 -The Marketplace Workshop will again be helping to make things for the quilt show. Did someone say goodies for lunch? May 6 - Those of you who love the primitive look will love Maggie Bonanomi's designs. Check her out on the web. I hope she brings her Settlers' Pride quilt. Where is Lafayette Co?

All my looking at maps while working at the census has awoken my interest in all places Missouri.

Another date to mark is June 5th. At our annual meeting we will be voting on our slate for the Board of Directors and on the budget. The policy for voting will be in the June newsletter. Voting for Chapter Officers is at the June chapter meetings. Our special speaker will be Karla Menaugh who is working with Barbara Brackman designing and making quilts. Check out the Sunflower Pattern Co-op. Machine applique is her specialty.

Finally, Fairview Methodist Church has asked us to not park along the long driveway when it is rainy and the lawn is soft. It is leaving deep ruts. There is more space in the top parking lot. Take the elevator for an easy way to go downstairs.

Service Project Committee is fit to be tied!

Actually, we have reached a point in the year that we have several (ok, more than several) quilts that have been pieced, blocks joined together, and are awaiting to be either tied or quilted. Thanks to members response to our appeal for batting, we have quilts ready to be tied or quilted!

Why not invite a few quilting friends over for an afternoon and have a tying party? Or take one and do a simple stitch in the ditch pattern?

If you recently received a Mega-quilter or a new long-arm and need something to practice on, here is a great opportunity. Stop by the Service Projects table at the chapter meetings and choose your project.

Or give us a call. we might just deliver it to you!

Thank you for caring enough to share your skills and time with others.

Co-chairs of Service Projects

I have a 222K Featherweight and a Featherweight sewing table (fits both 221K and 222K) that I am selling. The 222K Featherweight machine is rarer than the 221K as it is a free arm sewing machine. I am selling the 222K machine for $900 and the Featherweight sewing table for $200. If you are interested, please contact me at fieldingpa@socket.net or 573-441-0804. I can send pictures by email.

Please when you are returning books to the library, place them in the red tub that is labeled "Return Books Here." We have had a couple of instances lately where patrons of our library have said they have returned books, but we cannot locate them. Since there is always a lot of activity around our table (which we love), the safest way to insure that books get checked back in is to be sure to place them in the red tub. Thanks for helping us out with this. Donna Baker did locate her missing books.

New in the library:
" A Baker's Dozen - 13 quilts from jelly rolls, layer cakes & more" from the staff at That Patchwork Place. You will find projects for lap quilts, bed quilts and wall hangings using jelly rolls.

"Tile Quilt Revival - Reinventing a Forgotten Form" by Carol Gilham Jones and Bobbi Finley. This book includes a history of tile quilts plus photos of historic and contemporary tile quilts. There are six projects to do using your favorite applique technique to put a contemporary spin on a charming quilting tradition.

See you in the library...

MARCH FRIENDSHIP BLOCK - DAY

Marlene Duffield

My husband and I were raised in Leavenworth, Kansas. I graduated from Stephens College with degrees in business and psychology. I then went to work for the University of Missouri.

My husband, Roger, and I lived in Columbia since 1966 and we raised 4 children here. We retired from the University of Missouri in 2000. We have four grown children—2 boys and 2 girls. One daughter lives in St. Louis and the other three live in the Columbia area. We have 4 grandchildren—3 boys and one girl.

I got interested in quilting when my youngest daughter found out she was expecting twin boys. Mary Palmatary lived next door to me at the time and she walked me through the process of assembling two quilts. I have been quilting since 2000. It has been a very rewarding experience.

I have assembled simple and complex blocks. I have completed many bed quilts and wall hangings. I have done some machine quilting but I prefer to assemble the quilts on the machine and then hand quilt. My latest endeavors have been working with strips and curves. I have taken classes at Appletree, the Guild, and other locations.

My interests include gardening, gourmet and family cooking, bridge, traveling, reading, and playing with grandchildren.

My choice of a friendship block is a 3 inch 9 patch. One block should be in medium to light green prints and the other choice is a 3 inch 9 patch in medium to light yellow prints. Depending on how many blocks I receive, I plan to alternate the yellow and green blocks. I have been so intrigued with the combination of 9 patches I have seen lately that I would like to try a design from them.

I want to thank anyone who is thinking about completing a yellow or green block for me.

Q U I L T S H O W

Consignments:

We will again be taking consignments at the Market Place. If you have items you would like sold through the Market Place during the quilt show, please contact Barb Nichols. Please give her an idea of what items you have and the amount so we'll be prepared.

Quilt Raffle:

Tickets for the raffle quilt are now available. Please take the quilt, tickets and advertising postcards to any event you may be attending where there will be a group of people. The easiest way to help the guild with finances is to sell these tickets. We have a great quilt so it will sell itself. Every member of the guild should be able to sell at least 12 tickets (1 for $1, 6 for $5). Carrol Lewis has the quilt if you would like to take it to be shown, and also the tickets and advertising postcards.

Work Day:

Please come and help make items for the market Place at the May meeting. It's much easier if we get our items done early so we can concentrate on show quilts the last couple of months.

M A R K E T P L A C E

For the Day Chapter's morning and afternoon work session for the quilt show Marketplace we'll be making sewing machine covers. These always sell out, so your help making 30 or more is essential and appreciated. Some of the covers will be made from sewing theme coordinates. Others will be scrappy log cabin-style. Thanks to Suzanne Henage for donating some sewing-theme fabric. And super thanks to Carrol Lewis for heading up the log cabin covers that morning.

Please bring your sewing machine, cutting tools, basic sewing supplies, assorted thread (especially black, navy, ivory). One or two irons and ironing surfaces would be a big help. If you can't bring a machine, you can still help with fabric selection, cutting, and pressing.

See you May 3.
