BOONESLICK TRAIL QUILTERS' GUILD

*Day Chapter Mon. April 4, 2011 1:00 PM
Fairview Methodist Church*

Spring is coming!!! In April we would like you to bring any quilt you have made or made for you from Kathy Delaney's designs. We will hang them on our portable wall to enjoy. Our guild day, April 4th will start at 9:00 for those who are taking the Mariner's Compass drafting class by Kathy Delaney. WE STILL HAVE OPENINGS! This is a great opportunity to learn to do some great design and planning with one of the most beautiful quilting motifs ever, the Mariner's Compass. We will have extra paper and compasses at the meeting for you to use, so don't let the supply list discourage you. We are opening registration to other guilds now, so don't delay if you would like a spot.

Kathy will have the trunk show and lecture at our 1:00 meeting as well. Her topic is "It's a Mystery to Me". Please come early to sew if you are not planning on being in the class, and bring a dessert to share.

A taste of what is coming: Jeanne Poore trunk show "Border to Border" in May. Karla Menaugh's all day workshop May 21st on "Invisible Machine Applique".

Thanks you to all of you who support our guild functions with your time and energy. Tammy

Quilting experiences shared among ourselves are one of the many benefits of being a BTQG member. And when we expand the sharing beyond our guild, we open our minds and hearts to possibilities we haven't considered. For our April 7 program, several Country Patch Quilters Guild members from Marshall, Mo, are bringing their quilts and experiences to share. So, bring your show & tell items and enjoy meeting some quilting neighbors.

Dawn, our president, says that the monthly UFO day is cancelled for the time being. It may be reinstated at later date.

Don't forget: We have a free motion and thread painting class presented by Mindy Smith on Saturday, April 2. Details and the sign up form are in the March newsletter – plus, Mindy graciously announced that she will donate all proceeds to our guild!

Please feel free to bring treats/snacks to our meetings: sharing food is part of quilting, too, isn't it? Marilyn & Dennis

2012—QUILT SHOW NEWS !!!

I am looking forward to chairing the 2012 Quilt Show. The Executive Board approved the proposal by Kim Diamond and Janet Hollandsworth to hold our show in conjunction with the SUGAR conference, June 2012. We will hang our quilts at the Holiday Inn Expo Center on Sunday afternoon, and host the show M-W, noon through 8:00 pm Monday and Tuesday and noon to 4:00 on Wednesday. With the venue and half the vendors taken care of we can begin to focus on the more creative aspects of hanging a show! Our co-chair is Alice Leeper and Linda Sappington will be chairing the vendor committee. We would like to get going with our planning and fun, so if you would like to help with the 2012 show please let me know. We need chairs for our Silent Auction; Quilt Auction (new category), Marketplace; Volunteer and Set-up/Take Down Committees. Looking for creative people who like to have fun and eat chocolate. Tammy Bush

Day Friendship Block Winner - JUDY GIELEMAN

I grew up in Macon, 60 miles north of here. My husband is also from Macon and after college we moved to Columbia in 1965 and both worked at MFA Insurance Co. – now Shelter Insurance. After a move and short stay of nine months in Sedalia we moved back to Columbia in May of 1973. I worked for the University of Missouri in the Dean’s Office of the College of Agriculture, Food & Natural Resources from 1973 until I retired at the end of 1999.

Counted cross stitch has been a passion of mine since the early 80s. Another passion is gardening, I have orchids in bloom now in a large east window. Right now I am anxious for spring to get here so I can work in my flower beds. I’ve just recently discovered day lilies. There are so many beautiful colors and varieties that I may have to increase my flower beds!

I started getting interested in quilting in the late 90s but I never finished a quilt until I joined the guild about 2004.

I have been acquiring fat quarters for quite some time, so I’m glad the magazines are coming out with scrappy patterns now. I thought I would give one a try. The block I chose is for a quilt in a special spring 2009 issue of "McCalls Quilting, America Loves Scrap Quilts."

OFFICER NOMINATIONS

It’s that time of year again when we start thinking about who will be running your guild for next year. In the next month be thinking a position you would like to do or lead. With everyone’s help, the guild runs like a well-oiled machine—sewing machine that is !! The nominating is being formed and will be recruiting volunteers. Questions about a position— help that person over the next couple months and make the transition easier for you. If you’re thinking about doing anything with programs, the Heartland Quilt Network conference in Lenexa KS , April 2, is a good place to get ideas, and the conference is free. Alice Leeper is attending and has offered to take 3 people with her. Give her a call—489– 1458

LIBRARY NEWS

It’s been a long and nasty winter. We are blaming the weather for the large numbers of overdue books from our Guild Library. Because it has been difficult or impossible for some of us to come to meetings, we have not hounded you to get the books returned, BUT, from now on, we plan to remind members in the newsletter when books are overdue. We’ve been able to reach some of you by phone or email, but some of you we’ve not been able to contact.

According to our records the following members have books which are overdue at this time:

Irmgard Marsh, Faye Sharp, Fern Turner, and Mary Vincenz.

If you have questions, please call either Library Chairs:

Pat Leistner (446-2811) or Linda Karns (874-0288)

Dear Quilt Guild,

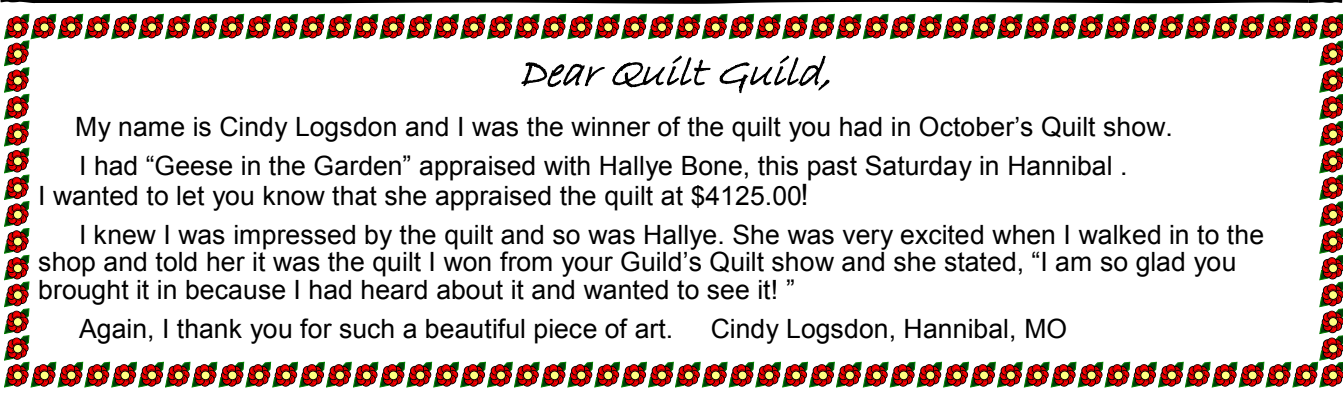

My name is Cindy Logsdon and I was the winner of the quilt you had in October’s Quilt show.

I had “Geese in the Garden” appraised with Hallye Bone, this past Saturday in Hannibal .

I wanted to let you know that she appraised the quilt at $4125.00!

I knew I was impressed by the quilt and so was Hallye. She was very excited when I walked in to the shop and told her it was the quilt I won from your Guild’s Quilt show and she stated, “I am so glad you brought it in because I had heard about it and wanted to see it! ”

Again, I thank you for such a beautiful piece of art. Cindy Logsdon, Hannibal, MO

Service Projects Committee Report:

Cecile and I are winding up our terms as co-chairs of the Service Projects Committee. Please consider volunteering to co-chair this committee. We would like to acknowledge the recent gift from Gail Marcy of Satin Stitches of all the embroidered blocks created as she demonstrates the embroidery machines at her business. The blocks will enable us to create at least 10-12 quilts out of them. We have spent a Saturday morning pulling fabrics to put with the blocks to create kits. The kits were available for pick up at the March chapter meetings, along with some other kits we put together that same morning.

We will continue to have kits available at each chapter's' meetings. At this point, we have tops returned, awaiting quilting. There are guild members who are willing to sew the bindings and labels on, but these must be quilted or tied before we can pass them on to the willing binders and labelers. We will have several of the smaller quilts set up to be tied at the next day chapter meeting's sit and sew time in the morning, so bring your needles, and thimbles and we'll provide the project and thread.

We have reduced the stash down to 8 tubs, and all the fabric has been sorted AND it is washed and clean. The committee has used ALL of the batting that was donated, including the big. industrial-sized roll of batting the Day chapter purchased wholesale to donate to the service projects last spring. So, if someone is considering being chair/co-chair of the Service Projects committee, you will be receiving a manageable stash that would fit along a wall, 6-8 feet long, depending on whether you stack the tubs 2 or 3 tubs high. Please consider volunteering to serve. Better yet, get a friend and volunteer together. Talk to either of us if you have questions, and we will be glad to answer them.

Joan Pottinger (881-9463) and Cecile Mazan (698-2008)
