Day Chapter
Monday-Jan 3, 2011
1:00 PM
Fairview Methodist

Thank you to all who came to the Day guild Holiday lunch. A big Thanks to those who brought food to share and who helped our day guild raise about $1300.00 by taking part in the auction.

In January, we will learn about scalloped borders in a workshop by Dawn Heese (Still room, please register! , page 5) from 9:00 to 12:00. Then, Bettina Havig will have our program speaking on Amish Quilts in the afternoon.

Looks to be a great day, please join us for our first meeting of 2011. Tammy

Starlight Piecemakers'
Thur. Jan 6, 2011
7:00 PM
Fairview Methodist

The January program starts our new year with a special guest, Barbara Overby. Barbara is a fiber artist who focused her energies in weaving. Owner of a weaving store for 15 years, she is also a founding partner of Blue Stem, a favorite shopping site in Columbia. Barbara is a founding member of the Missouri Fiber Artists and the Columbia Spinners and Weavers Guild in Columbia. Please bring your woven coverlets for a special show & tell.

Come early, 6:30 pm, on the 6th and you can see a demo on mitering the corners of your quilts. Dawn Heese will provide the training and I know I'll be there. Getting those corners finished correctly really makes a difference in the final product.

We can't begin the New Year without a proper thank you to YOU. At our Christmas dinner, the auction netted $762.00! About half of this total came from the sale of some of Kay Grebing's stash – special thanks to Jane and those who helped organize the items and to each of you who contributed those hot-selling things. And, get this: your twilling workshop netted $185.00 – awesome! Keep in mind that these funds go toward our future programs and to keep our guild in good financial health. Well done, quilters!

Finally, we have work and some fun planned for the February meeting - service projects and a sweetheart celebration– you'll get details in the next newsletter. We will also have a guest appearance from Mindy Smith who has agreed to provide a workshop in early April. So, get ready – 2011 is going to be busy and fun. Marilyn & Dennis

Fellow Quilters,

The December meetings were full of fun and fellowship. I enjoyed the potluck meals at both events. Both auctions were successful. Thanks to everyone who bid on either silent or live auction items.

We are now at the halfway mark in the year. Plans are progressing well for the Annual Meeting in June. We'll have more to report on the speaker in future newsletters. We also signed a contract for the special speaker for the Fall Workshop in September.

I want to take this opportunity to thank you for making this year so successful.

2012 Quilt Show—Careful planning is the secret to success. It may seem crazy to be talking about the next quilt show when we have just barely finished with the last show. But now is the time to be picking our committee chairs. Do you have a desire to get involved at the early stage – picking the location, the theme, the date? If so, call me and let's talk.

LAST TIME TO PURCHASE CARRIE HALL BLOCKS !!!
AQS will be remaindering Carrie Hall Blocks by Bettina Havig. That means that after January 1 the book will be officially out of print and harder to find, if at all. It is unclear if the remaining stock will be destroyed or not. Dec. 31 is the deadline.
All of that said, it presents an opportunity for you to acquire the book at half price, $17.50 instead of $34.95.
As the author I can still order until Dec. 30. If you want a copy please let me know. You can call 573-449-1602 or email: bettinaqc@socket.net and reserve a copy. On Dec. 30 I will order only those copies that you request. The books will probably not arrive in time for the day meeting but may for Starlight Piecemaker's.
Thanks, Bettina Havig

2011 FALL WORKSHOP TERI HENDERSON-TOPE

For those organized ladies ready to start your calendars for 2011 – I want to let everyone know to save the dates of September 14 and 15, 2011 for our Fall Workshop. I have just completed arrangements to have Teri Henderson Tope of Material Girl Designs (www.materialgirldesigns.com) as our guest speaker and workshop instructor. Terri has a new book out titled "Applique in Reverse" and will be teaching a block from this book. Teri states this class is for beginners, or even more advanced applique quilters, her technique can be easily mastered and is fast and easy. Three members of the BTQG have already completed this workshop when they attended Teri's class at the AQS Des Moines Quilt show in 2010. Teri is coming to you highly recommended. Joan Westcott

LOST YOUR COAT OR PAIR OF GLASSES .....

Someone left a grey and white fleece jacket at the Thursday, Dec. 2 Starlight meeting. It has a heart and polka dot motif on it. It's stashed in the storage room at the church on the top shelf, if the owner needs it.

Also, someone left a pair of eyeglasses (maybe cheaters?) at one of our meetings, which are stored in the small box labeled "membership" in the same storage room.

Thanks! Diana Fischer

LAURI MURPHY

Starlight Piecemakers' December's --- Friendship Block Winner !!!

"Hi." I'm Lauri Murphy and presently serve as your secretary on the Executive Board. My immediate family consists of husband, Alan, and our blended family of four boys (each contributing two!). Since our marriage in 1995 all four have married and we have become the proud grandparents of six (3 boys and 3 girls). Alan retired from the U.S. Postal Service in 2004, after 39 years. The majority of my working career was 25 years as an ophthalmologic technician/secretary in a local office practice.

Until about seven years ago, quilts were merely treasured gifts given by my mother who primarily did applique by hand and then enlisted sisters and sisters-in-law to help with the hand quilting. My mother and an older sister taught me to use a sewing machine and read a pattern and I could accomplish basic garment construction but was by no means an accomplished seamstress. Sister-in-law, Linda Hudson, invited me to join her as a visitor at a guild meeting at St. Andrew's Lutheran Church and the addiction began. My favorite quilting projects are those I've managed to hand quilt. It's a slow process for me, but a very enjoyable one.

I'm still in the process of choosing the design for my friendship block but am leaning towards blue and white for the colors. Hope to see many of you at the Friendship Block table January 6, 2011."

NANCY ANTONIO

Day Chapter's December's --- Friendship Block Winner !!!

Hi fellow block makers! I am Nancy Antonio and I won the Day Chapter friendship blocks for January! I have been quilting about 8 years. When I retired I decided to explore "a little bit about" quilting. I didn't realize I was opening a door on many friendships and experiences. BTQG has a lot of inspirational and knowledgeable quilters. I am most interested in traditional quilting but love art quilts too. I haven't decided which block I will ask you to do but I do appreciate you helping me to work on a quilt that I otherwise wouldn't get finished. You know the expression so many quilts and so little time. It will be an easy block. I think it will be a fence rail block to go with appliqued strips (I am working on these now.) based on a Jan Patek's basket pattern. I have two daughters and five grandchildren (between the ages of 8 to 17). They are very busy with sports and music. Mackenzie will graduate from high school in 2012. I hope to help celebrate with a quilt.

LIBRARY NEWS

A wonderful team of volunteers inventoried our library on the 8th. Everything is much neater and easier to find now. We made a few changes in how the materials are organized. Books and materials are still in order by author, editor or publisher, although we found some that needed to be reclassified. Recreational Reading, which includes novels, other fiction, humorous and spiritual books related to quilting, now has its own section. Special Reference (previously called "heirloom") books have been marked with stickers for easy identification, but are still in with the regular collection. Non book items, such as videos and tools, are also separate.

To assist you in finding what you want, we keep lists of the materials at the desk and on the web site by author and by subject. Of course, you can just browse through the collection or ask our friendly library assistants for help too. I'm working on updating the lists as well as the database now that the inventory is completed. Early next year we will also identify books to "deacquisition", or remove from our collection. These will be sold to benefit the guild.

Thanks to Pat Leistner, Marge Hicks, Corrine Remeika, Janet Sampson, Kristen Kunze, and Bettina Havig for help with the inventory.

Linda Karns, Librarian
