BOONESLICK TRAIL QUILTERS' GUILD

Day Chapter

Monday Aug 2 - 1:00 pm

Fairview Methodist Church

Our guest speaker for the day chapter meeting, on August 2nd is one of our own, Janet Espelata. Janet won the friendship block last Feb. and is a prolific quilter. We are looking forward to her trunk show.

Our Vice Presidents are busy getting our programs for the coming year. We are seeking low/no cost workshops to off-set the fees of a few well-known, in-demand speakers. The biggest expense for a speaker is often the travel fees, so looking more local is practical. Are there any of you who would like to share a refined skill in the quilting arts by putting together a workshop? We would be very interested in talking to you, please chat with one of our Vice Presidents!

We are also open to sew early on Quilt Guild meeting days starting at 9:00 a.m. It is the best way to really get to know a few of the other people in the guild, and have uninterrupted sewing time!

We would like to sell (auction or raffle) themed baskets at our December meeting. If you would like to put one together with a friend or two and contribute please let one of our officers know. Thanks!

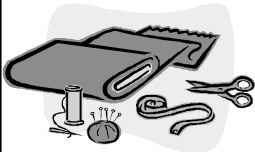

If any of you have themed decorations please volunteer one month and assist the hospitality crew with snack table décor. Talk to Brenda or Pat about those sombreros (May) or pilgrim (Nov.) decorations stashed in your attic!

Note: Change of Meeting Place - Month of August
Trinity Presbyterian Church - 1600 W Rollins— Columbia, MO

It's HOT and its HUMID and it's August meeting time. Come join your fellow quilters in the cool at Trinity Presbyterian Church on Rollins Rd. And enjoy a presentation by our very own Civil War Block Group. These ladies began their work by selecting blocks patterned from the book "Quilt Tops & Excerpts from Civil War Diaries". So, history and historical blocks have been combined to provide insight into a special period in our country's life. Who knows what has happened since the group members also exchanged blocks. Come and see the results and enjoy the fruits of our quilters' labors.

LIBRARY NEWS

We're Full to the Brim,
Come Help Us Get Trim.
By Checking a Book Out Today !

Looking for a good summer read? Try one of the Elm Creek Quilts novels by Jennifer Chiaverini. Many of the novels involve a master quilter and her Elm Creek Quilts, a family manor which is a quilter's retreat, and the women whose lives touch there. Some are quite contemporary. But some are historical, weaving the lives of her ancestors and earlier residents of the area with events and conditions of the times, as well as quilt history. These women's stories, characters, relationships and wisdom will quickly capture you. But there's a lot about quilting and how it is part of their lives. Although there are now 16 books in the series, each book stands alone—you don't have to read them in order. For more information, see <http://www.elmcreek.net/>

Note: Due to the change in meeting location, the library will not be available for August's Starlight Piecemakers' meeting. However, you may return books.

See Linda Karns or Pat Leistner, or look for the return box.

SERVICE PROJECT NEWS

I delivered 25 quilts to the Rainbow House this last month and below is a note we received from them.

Cecile Mazan

Cecile,
I just wanted to thank you and the Booneslick Quilters' Guild again for of your hard work in what will be a welcoming gift to the children that we serve here.

RAINBOW HOUSE

QUILT SHOW-UPDATES !!!

We have 17 quilts entered in our show. There are only 97 days until show time, so maybe we should all pick up the pace and get our projects ready.

If you have consignment items for the show, please complete the enclosed form and send to Barbara Nichols.

We still need the following items for the Quilt Market: placemat sets, potholders, pincushions, scrap catchers, machine covers, totes, mug rugs, and Christmas stockings. It makes everything run much smoother if we have our Quilt Market items ready by the end of September so the committee can get them sorted and priced and a plan together for display. Mona will have more kits available at the August meeting. Please help with items for the market. We usually make a significant amount of our operating funds from this venue and you will enjoy the fruits of your labor during the year at our programs.

If you think of any advertising opportunities, please tell Alice Leeper. We don't want to miss out on any opportunities. Which reminds me, I would like to have about 20 small quilts to use in several places as advertising. If you could make one for us or have one we could use, it would be appreciated.

Thanks for all your contributions and ideas.

Carrol Lewis

Quilt Challenge – It's Not Too Late !

Quilt Challenges are to tempt you to step beyond your usual quilt expectations or choices. To fit our theme of Quilt Expressions, the major component of this year's quilt challenge is to use words! A line of poetry, a humorous expression that brings a smile, some goal or aspiration you want to share.

Here are the rules; but they are only very general, so that your creative spirit can fly:

Challenge Rules

1. The overall size of your finished piece must be a minimum of 12 inches (12" x 12") square.
2. There is no limit to the maximum overall size of the finished piece.
3. The challenge piece must have at least 5 English words anywhere within the piece.
4. Some of the fabric supplied must be used in the quilt. It may be dyed, tinted or otherwise altered.
5. Any and all embellishments are OK – beads, buttons, feathers, thread painting, painting, photos or other stuff!
6. You may enter as many times as you wish.
7. Larger quilts must have a 4 inch sleeve on the back at the top. Smaller pieces must have a way to hang on fabric background.
8. It must include a label. You may also include a write up to explain your inspiration.

We have a limited amount of fabric, so let me know at August quilt meetings.

You will need the size to enter on line.

Please contact Nancy Antonio for more information, ask questions, or to pick up fabric.

Fall Lecture & Workshop - Froncie Quinn

Wed. & Thurs. - September 8-9, 2010

We are quite pleased this year to be able to offer you a lecture and workshop to be conducted by Froncie Quinn. For those of you who are not acquainted with Froncie, she is licensed by the Shelburne Museum, Sturbridge Village, Vermont Quilt Festival, and Lancaster Quilt & Textile Museum to write patterns for their beautiful quilts. When possible, her patterns include the Historical Method of construction and the Modern Method of construction, so the reproduction can be pieced by both the hand and the machine piecer.

In her classes, Froncie accommodates people with all skill levels whether they are beginners or quilters of many years. The workshop she will be presenting for us is called Sarah's Medallion. Early in the 19th century Sarah, aged only 14 in 1826, made a beautiful scrap quilt and in the quilt's center she pieced a medallion. We will be making that medallion which will make a lovely wall hanging.

The cost for the all-day workshop will be $45 plus approximately $15 for the purchase of the pattern. Templates will be provided, so piecing can begin immediately. The second part of the class will be spent on hand appliqué which takes no previous experience. The third portion of the class will be spent talking about signature blocks and quilt labels. For those who have computers, you can check out Froncie's website at www.hooplapatterns.com. The workshop registration form can be found elsewhere in this newsletter. Please try to have your registration in by August 15. If we don't have at least 20 people enrolled after August 15, the workshop will be opened to non-members.

Please call me at 573-239-1882 if you have any questions Joan Westcott
