Day Chapter
Monday - Nov. 1 - 1:00 pm
Fairview Methodist Church

Our Nov. 1st meeting will be given by Jeanette Frock, owner of the Sew Sweet Quilt Shop in Brunswick, MO, just north of Marshall. To see some of her work and get an idea of her program go to www.sewsweetquiltshop.blogspot.com. Don't forget to sign up to donate a basket for auction at the December meeting. We encourage big, medium and even small baskets to be donated. We will present a few more ideas at our Dec. meeting, so I hope many more of you will sign up to bring one. I have been encouraged by your participation and good natures as we learn more about each other at our meetings. Please come early if you can, and sew with other day members on meeting day. Use the time to finish one of those UFO's and get better acquainted. I am a week past rotator cuff surgery and am pleased to say that I can use my right arm well enough to hand sew! Thank you to those of you who sent get well quick wishes! They are working!

Thursday - Nov. 4 - 7:00 pm
Fairview Methodist Church

Judy Lyon (Meadowlyon Designs LLC) will be our guest November 4. She says she's not blonde, Judy is a California girl, married to a military man (they have traveled a lot!), have eight children and designs continuous line quilting and embroidery patterns. Judy grew up with quilts and fondly recalls hand quilting with her mother. Wanting to make a special quilt for her son led Judy to draw a quilting pattern. Her friend, Angela Meadows, agreed to do the machine quilting of Judy's pattern and a new business was born. Her patterns are quite versatile – for blocks, borders, panels, whole cloth – machine or hand quilting. Judy's program, "Adding the Secret Ingredient – A Meadowlyon Adventure", will include quilts for our viewing pleasure and Judy says she'll bring along some patterns, too.

Don't forget: bring your Auction items for the December 2 meeting.

NOTE FROM OUR CEO

I want to graciously thank Nancy Anotnio for all her hard work with Heartland Presbyterian Conference Center in getting the Center to forgive the commitment due on our contract. So we had no loss on Bare Bones. The Board decided that there will not be a Bare Bones for next year, but will revisit at another time if there is enough member support.

QUILT SHOW-UPDATES !!!

I believe we are ready to do a show. We have over 200 quilts, the Marketplace says they are ready, and all the other pieces are falling into place. We do need a couple of things: heavy duty extension cords and power strips (please have these clearly marked with your name), and ladders. We could use 6 ladders and 30 extension cords and power strips just to be sure we have everything covered. Please call me at 573-657-4532 if you can loan us either of those things.

See you at the show!! CARROL

I'll be at both November chapter meetings to receive those last items for the Market Place. We've got a nice supply of placemats, table runners, aprons, pillowcases and many other gift-worthy items. Tell your friends and family to start their holiday shopping at our show, since many items are of interest to non-quilters. Shop early. At the Springfield show half of their aprons sold on the first day. Be sure to check out our display of Fat Quarters and scrap bags, with themes like frogs, plaids, florals, tropical, historical, holidays and juvenile. Thanks for your help. Mona Stevenson for the Market Place Committee.

Quilt Show Entries

We ended up with 235 quilts for the BTQG 2010 quilt show. It should be a wonderful display of all the talent in our guild.

Just a few reminders about entering your quilts:

Quilts must be delivered to Stoney Creek Inn on Friday, November 5th between 7:30 a.m. and 11 a.m.

If your quilt is 36 inches square or less, it will not need a sleeve. All other quilts must have a sleeve in order for us to hang them.

Be sure to attach the label (you either filled it out or printed it when you entered your quilt) to the bottom left corner (right corner when looking at the back of the quilt) to your quilt or quilted item when you submit it so we can easily identify your quilt or item.

Whoever picks up the quilt MUST have the claim check in their possession.

Quilts will be available for pickup after the show starting at 6 p.m. on Sunday, November 7th.

I look forward to seeing all of you at the show...Willie

See you at the Show!

Starlight Piecemakers' Sept. Friendship Block Winner !!!

Hi! I'm Betty White and this is really my lucky year. First I won the friendship block drawing for the day chapter in May and now I have won the October drawing for the Starlight Chapter.

Since I have so recently told you "my story" I won't bother to repeat. However, in August I became a first time grandmother and I am sure enjoying this new phase of life. I get to babysit often and sure enjoy doing my share of loving and holding.

I have yet to decide on the block I will use for this quilt. I have a few ideas that I am trying to narrow down. However, I will make up my mind soon and have everything ready to go for our meeting on Nov. 4th. I'm looking forward to seeing you then and hope you will consider making a block for my quilt.

Day Chapters' Sept. Friendship Block Winner !!!

"Hello, I am Othella Reed, and thrilled to be October's Day Chapter Friendship Block winner.

I love quilting and have been quilting since I was big enough to thread my Grandmother's quilting needles. I am a new member of the BTQG, as of July of this year, and am enjoying visiting the various day chapter meetings to see for which I am best suited.

I am entering a Quilt Show for the first time (the November Showing), but am entering gift quilts. I do not have a quilt that I've made as each was made for a special person or occasion.

I moved to Columbia six years ago from the Lake of the Ozarks area, where I was a member of that local Arts & Crafts Guild. I enjoy reading, quilting and lap quilting, crocheting, crafting, but most of all I enjoy the study of God's Word and I believe any talent I have is a gift from Him, and I sincerely thank Him for my blessings and pray that I am a good steward of them.

As I grew up, I remember the fun and exciting days when my Mother's Quilt Group would come to our home, bring Pot-luck lunch (really a feast) and quilt all day, visit, laugh and enjoy being together.

My block for November will be "Dancing Stars", a variation of the Jacob's Ladder Pattern. I will have the pattern at the November meeting. It will be a scrap quilt, so please select two of your favorite scraps of fabric which will make up the finished six inch block. I am looking forward to assembling them in a mixed fashion, for a lovely quilt for someone to enjoy. Sign your block if you wish, but more importantly, put your name in for the drawing for block winner of the month."

Service Projects

Service Projects Committee has taken a little break to allow all of us to focus on the upcoming Quilt Show, but we will be back at the December meeting with kits to pass out, tops to be quilted, quilts that need binding, and some that need labels attached. Thanks to all who took and completed kits at the fall chapter meetings. A current need is for labels to sew on the completed quilts. Contact Cecile or Joan to volunteer to make some.

A special thanks to all who responded to our emergency call for laundering all the tubs of fabric after some donated fabric that had cat dander on it caused Cecile to have a severe allergic reaction after handling it. Because we intermingled the fabric before we realized the problem, all the fabric in our Service Projects stash had to be laundered.

Due to potential allergic reactions to quilts made with fabric with cat or dog dander, or cigarette smoke (three common allergies) we ask that donated fabric that potentially may carry one of these allergens be laundered before passing it on to us. Use scent-free detergent and no fabric softener, please. Fabric does NOT have to be ironed or folded. Thank you for considering those who will be handling these fabrics in constructing our service projects quilts and/or those who will be the recipients of these quilts.

Joan Pottinger and Cecile Mazan, co-chairs of Service Projects Committee

INTERESTED IN A 221 FEATHERWEIGHT ???

I know a gentleman who has a number of featherweights 221 and 222's as well as sewing tables. He has been collecting them for a number of years and has discovered that he has too many! He would like to sell some of them. I recently bought my featherweight from him. If anyone is in the market for a featherweight, he may be a good first stop.
