November Quilt Show News

The Guild will host a quilt show November 15-16, 2014, at Missouri United Methodist Church in downtown Columbia. Theme will be "Memories from the Past, Visions for the Future."

Committees are being formed with these chairpersons:

- Marketplace—Corinne Remeika
- Quilt Entry Forms—Willie Morris
- Quilt Displays/Props—Mona Stevenson
- Quilt Check In/Out—Willie Morris
- Challenge Quilt—Carrol Lewis
- Silent Auction—Ustena Simenson
- Volunteer Coordinator—Pat Leistner
- T-shirts—Dianne Jackson

Chairs are still needed for these committees:

- Advertising/Marketing
- Programs/Publications
- Layout Design
- Quilt Hanging
- Opportunity Quilt/Tickets
- Vendors
- Quilters Gently Used Booth

Preliminary sign-up sheets were passed around during the May chapter meetings and many volunteered to serve in various capacities. Our annual meeting is June 7, but we have no other chapter meetings during June. We'd like to get our quilt show committees in place as soon as possible, so please contact us if you'd like to chair one of these committees. Members have been very supportive with their expertise and contact information. The quilt show handbook compiled by Jackie Berry has been very useful and we'll share information from it with you.

Our quilt show will display and celebrate the wonderful quilts made by our members but also provides funds for our chapter programs. We need your help. Many have completed the challenge quilt and made items for the Marketplace, so please keep working on these. We are also in need of an opportunity (raffle) quilt, so please let us know if you have a quilt that would be suitable. And we're hoping to hear more about the quilts you will display in the show. Please let us hear from you.

Library Notes:

I just want to thank Nancy Kennedy for her generous donation of books to the Library and quilt show as well as the sale (for cheap!) of even more books. Many other members have also donated books and magazines to the library over the last two months, I mean the last two years, and I have had great fun shelving or selling them all. Please accept my heartfelt thank you. I've had a great time serving as your librarian. I hope the new Board likes the two newest volunteers to the Library-Robin Helder and Henrietta Botts and asks them to stay on. If you wish to send thank you notes to Nancy her new address is: 3700 Lenoir Street, Columbia MO 65201.

Quilt Show Marketplace

We have the offer of many samples of decorating fabrics to make lovely pillows to sell at the marketplace in our quilt show. We need new pillow forms - sizes 12", 14", 16" and members willing to make one or two each. If you are willing to donate a pillow, we would really appreciate it. Remember, you can enter items in the Marketplace on consignment if you choose, to recoup the cost of materials on items that would sell for over $10 or more. You can request 70% of the sale price and the guild would receive 30% when the item sells. Hobby Lobby and JoAnn's sell pillow forms. If you get a coupon from either of them, newspaper or e-mail/ mailing for 40-50% off, the forms become more reasonable to purchase. We will plan to have kits available at the July day chapter sit and sew or to pick up before or after the meeting.

We are planning other kits to also have available. Of course, you are also encouraged to make items of your own choosing to contribute to our marketplace. Thank you all for whatever way you can help make our quilt show a success in raising money for rent of our meeting space and to have speakers come to present lectures, trunk shows, and workshops for us all to enjoy and to learn more quilting techniques.

Corinne Remeika, Marketplace chair

Monique Dillard is Teaching Special Classes in September

Monique Dillard of Rockford, Illinois, will present a lecture and trunk show on Thursday evening, September 25, about her quilting journey. She has many intricate looking quilts, some of which you can see on her web site, www.opengatequilts.com. She will teach a hands-on class on Friday, September 26, with one of her patterns, "Victoria Rose," which has two sizes of flying geese. Her flying geese templates make flying geese accurately, but purchase and use of her templates are optional. On Saturday morning, Monique will teach a class on color choices and accuracy techniques in block construction, cutting, and pressing. Students will also get a good start in making blocks for another beautiful quilt called "G7 Rambler" during that half-day class. Look for a sample quilt from some of her patterns at the Annual Meeting on June 7. Registration for classes will begin in August. Be sure to save the dates of September 25, 26, and 27 for Monique Dillard's presentation and her classes.

2014 Winter Retreat

The 2014 Winter Retreat, "Cabin Fever", was a beary fun weekend, in spite of the winter storm! We enjoyed the spaciousness, amenities, food, and friendliness of the Country Club Hotel and Spa at Lake Ozark. Responses from the retreat attendees were very favorable. Many thanks to my fabulous committee: Maria DeLamatre, Martha Eberhard, Dianne Jackson, Alice Leeper, Julie Martin, Lauri Murphy, Lauri Rich, and Janet Sapp. We are already looking forward to the 2015 retreat! Anna Mary Hughes, Sandy Womack, and Catherine Duffy have stepped forward as the 2015 retreat committee. Please talk to Anna Mary or Sandy if you would like to join their committee; it will be fun!

BTQG Annual Meeting is Saturday, June 7, beginning at 10:30

Be sure to attend the Annual Meeting that is scheduled for Saturday, June 7, in Fairview United Methodist Church at 3200 Chapel Hill Road. The meeting begins at 10:30 and is a business meeting for ALL members of BTQG. Business will include a report on the financial status of the guild; approval of the BTQG budget for 2014-2015; information from quilt show co-chairs about the November 2014 quilt show; recognition of new guild members; highlights of this BTQG year; and election of officers for 2014-2015. There will also be a sneak-peak at quilts that can be created from Monique Dillard's classes on September 26 and 27.

There is no cost to attend the Annual Meeting. A quorum is essential, so be sure to arrive by 10:30. After the business meeting, we eat lunch. See May's newsletter for the menu choices from Honey Baked Ham and sign up for a box lunch if you can do it by the May 25 deadline for ordering lunch. If you did not order lunch, bring a lunch or snack with you. Coffee, tea, and lemonade will be provided. Some games and drawings for prizes will take place during lunch.

Join in the fun: Look further in this newsletter for the Quilter's Personal Inventory Contest, follow its directions, and bring your lists to the Annual Meeting. Prizes will be awarded.

Reminder: This is the only guild meeting scheduled for June. There are no June chapter meetings, so come and celebrate the close of our fiscal year, vote for next year's officers, and enjoy some fun with your quilting friends.

If you cannot attend, you can vote for officers anyway. The ballot is in this newsletter. Be sure to mail the ballot to BTQG's address so that it arrives by June 5 (2 days ahead of the Annual Meeting).

Volunteers Needed!

As we transition to the 2014-2015 guild year, we are looking for persons interested in serving as chairs of the standing committees. These committees, described in the membership booklet and on the guild's website, are: Day Chapter Program Chair, Starlight Program Chair, Librarian, Historian, Service Project, Newsletter, Membership, Membership Roster, Webmaster, Hospitality, Retreat, and Quilt Show.
