"One Hundred Small Quilts" is a trunk show of more than 100 pint-sized quilts made and collected by Diane Harris over the past three decades. The quilts offer a perspective on changing styles and fabrics over the years. They also tell the story of one quilter's journey from young 4-H sewer to quilt industry professional. Ms Harris uses these quilts to discuss value, color and design, and she shares many ideas on how to make better, more interesting quilts.

Alice K. Lepper
Program Chair, Starlight Piecemakers' Program

How about that! We got to meet in April! So good to see everyone after the long hard winter. We enjoyed Pat Yamin's workshop and program and will be blessed again in May, when Jennifer Todd from "The Quilted Cow", comes to Columbia. She will be doing a morning workshop on paper pieced miniature quilts. You do not need to sign up ahead of time. Just show up that morning with $10. I have been to her workshop which is near Branson, MO and it is very nice. She probably will bring items with her so we can shop. Jerry wants to come also, so bring your scissors. I think he likes our group. Keep making items for the marketplace. We will need a lot. More about that later.

Happy Quilting!
Mary Petersen, Day Chapter President

The Bonne Femme book group will meet May 20, 1-3 p.m. at DBRL. The May selection is THE LAST RUNAWAY, by Tracy Chavalier.
The June selection is THE UNION QUILTERS, by Jennifer Chiaverini. No book discussion in July. The August selection is THE FORGOTTEN SEAMTRESS, by Liz Trenow. Further selections are pending. Any interested member is welcome to attend.

MAY 5TH

SIT AND SEW: FOR THE MARKETPLACE

Any member who is interested in donating fabric/ projects/loan patterns to the Marketplace for our Quilt Show, to sew items for it: please come to Sit and Sew at 9:30. As Marketplace Chair, I will be there to receive items, share what we need, hear your ideas and suggestions for items to make, ways to display items. For items we would like to have multiples to sell, I'd like to have us form small groups to schedule some work sessions to help make items by assembly line when that would be helpful, or just all work on our own items but enjoy doing it together, as we do in interest groups. I have a couple of partially finished quilt tops, some Christmas stockings and other assorted kits, some lovely fabrics for purses, aprons, and tea cozies that were brought to me. If you have fabrics to donate, please bring them so we can see what we have to work with. I have a good variety of patterns to lend and some samples for those who want to make some things. As my mother often said, "Many hands make light work." And it's more fun!

If you don't come to Day Chapter meetings, yet want to help, please feel free to call me and we can arrange to get together individually or plan an evening or weekend group work session. Call 449-7574.

I have been so delighted and encouraged by the response already from the number of you who want to help. To those of you who indicated donations or volunteered to sew on the surveys we passed out at the last Guild meeting, I'll be contacting you, or come see me at one of the meetings.

Thank you so much. Corinne Remeika

NEW MEMBER BIO-CAMEOS

Judy Allen moved to Columbia with her husband Robert last October from Texas (Houston and Dallas) via the Lake of the Ozarks. She has been quilting since 1975, and has created about 50 quilts. She has 2 sons, 6 grandchildren, and 1 great grandchild and makes each one a quilt when they graduate from high school. Originally from Iowa, she came to Missouri to be closer to family there when U.S. Cellular, where she worked until 5 years ago, asked her to relocate here. Previously she was Director of Sales and Marketing for AT&T in Texas, and retired from there. Judy enjoys all styles and techniques of quilting, does hooked rugs, fabric dyeing, and artistic painting. She is currently doing art quilts. When she first learned to quilt she was mentored by Carla Hassell and helped create the quilt which is on the cover of Carla's book. Judy has volunteered to help with advertising our quilt show.

Marilyn Wine, originally from Fulton, attended college in Kirksville a year and then came to Columbia to finish her degree at Columbia College. She worked at State Farm Insurance for 42 years. Retiring June 1, 2012, she then opened her Quilt4U shop just off of North 763 on June 30, 2012. She is married to Terry who works at State Farm. They have two grown children, Matthew and Jennifer, and toddler grandson Tucker. Marilyn enjoys antique auctions and getting more sleep when there is time. She's enjoying reconnecting to many quilters who she saw at her sister Pam Oliver's Miss Millie's Quilt Shop before her sister died and the shop closed. Marilyn also has a little dog, Angel. She has two long-arm quilting machines in her shop to quilt tops for customers. A couple of Guild interest groups meet at Marilyn's shop monthly.

Susan Ferrugia and her husband of 39 years Jamie, came to Columbia in May of 2013 after living near Fulton for 5 years. Previously they lived in Kansas City and Tennessee. They have two children: Nathan and Lisa. Lisa is married to James and they have a preschooler daughter Josie. Susan has sewn since she was very young but began quilting in 1999 after taking a quilting class. She loves to machine piece and hand quilt traditional quilts. She participates in the quilting group at Missouri United Methodist Church, contributing her knowledge about techniques, quilting design choices. Originally from Southern Missouri, Susan says she appreciates the privilege she has had to be a full-time homemaker. She enjoys walking and hiking with Jamie, travelling, visiting antique shops, baking, and making little girl clothes for Josie. They are very family oriented and Susan often travels 5 hours to help take care of her mother who also used to quilt.

NEW MEMBERS (2013-2014) TEA

When: Tuesday, May 20th Time: 2-4 p.m.

Hostess: Corinne Remeika, Membership Chair, at her home

Where: 5357 S. Bearfield Road, Columbia, MO 65201 Phone: 449-7574

Refreshments: hot tea, iced tea, coffee, cookies, fruit, etc.

This year, 17 women have joined the BTQGuild. This tea is to help us get better acquainted and for you to meet the other "newbies." It is also to give you the opportunity to ask questions about how the guild functions, what we mean by things like the quilt challenge, friendship stars, retreat, what is involved in a quilt show and its Marketplace. It is also an opportunity for you to learn about the various interest groups, the officers and the proposed budget for next year that you get to vote for at the annual meeting in June. You'll learn about the many committees which make guild functioning possible and get to consider which one(s) you would like to help. Participating in one or more interest groups and serving on a committee is really the best way to get to know other guild members, to form friendships and to feel a real part of the guild.

I really hope that as many of you as can will come to enjoy this tea. If you work that afternoon or are otherwise unable to come, please call me so we can arrange another time to help you become more comfortable in and knowledgeable about the guild. Call 449-7574 to let me know if you can or can't come and to get directions to my home. I'm about 1.5 miles south of the east part of Grindstone Parkway.

“AND NOW A WORD FROM YOUR CEO”

If you were at an April chapter meeting, then you had an opportunity to see BTQG's new shelves. Your Board planned this improvement last fall, waited for written approval from the church's Board of Directors, and installed the shelves in March. My husband was persuaded to design and build them. Merrill, Virginia, Hank and Hank's husband Jack met Larry and me at the church to install them and organize the totes. Cost of the shelving was $140.38 plus the 16 hours of labor by Larry and me. Cost to the guild? Nothing. My husband and I donated the labor and some hardware. Donations were made by Christi Brietzke and Alice Leeper to cover the cost of plywood and other hardware. Linda Karns and I donated rolling plant stands to assist with easy storage for the speakers. Virginia Peterson donated a 6-foot ladder to add even more safety in reaching and storing totes. Ustena Simenson donated some better sealing totes and tote labels. Good ideas and team work can accomplish much.

The photo directory is another example of a good idea put into action. This idea was presented to the Board last fall. A committee of Mary Petersen, Karon Huggler and Laura Eggeman spent several months getting photos of willing guild members for a prototype of this project. This directory looks great. If you do not have yours, then be sure to pick one up from the membership table during May's chapter meetings. Pictures of willing members are to be included in the 2014-2015 Membership Directory and Handbook next fall. This project adds only three sheets of paper to the printing cost of each booklet but adds a helpful aspect in knowing fellow guild members a bit more.

The Board made some changes in the Policies of BTQG. If changes had been suggested that the Board felt to be controversial, we would have consulted you, the membership. As it is, however, most of the changes to the Policies were ones that simplify some confusing language and that correct some grammar and punctuation. This committee was chaired by Ustena Simenson who served very capably in this role. She is in a leadership position within her professional career and has experience with organizations through that avenue. Other capable members of this committee were Donna Baker, Willie Morris, Merrill Winfield, Marilyn Wooldridge, and Sharon Lawler. The guild web site has the new set of Policies. Look elsewhere in this newsletter for the new wording in the areas that the Board changed.

The Board thanks all of you who through words and actions this year have been supportive of us. The Board's goal is always to make BTQG a more enjoyable, meaningful experience for you.

Sharon Lawler,
CEO for 2013-2014

Monique Dillard is coming to BTQG

Monique Dillard is coming to BTQG on September 25 to give an evening lecture and trunk show. She will present an all day workshop on Friday, September 26, featuring one of her popular and intricate looking flying geese patterns. On Saturday, September 27, she will teach a half day class based around another quilt block, but she will also teach about color choices and accuracy techniques in block construction, cutting, and pressing. Monique grew up in Canada around quilters, where she learned handwork techniques. She has published over 76 quilt patterns and has designed 6 great rulers. Monique has been featured in American Patchwork and Quilting, Quilt Magazine, and Quiltmaker. You will enjoy her creative lecture and classes. Look for samples of quilts from her patterns at our Annual Meeting on June 7 and also at chapter meetings in July and August. Sign up for Monique Dillard's classes will begin in August.

Revised and approved by the Board of Directors on April 14, 2014.

The Big Muddy Folk Festival, which is held each April in Thespian Hall in Boonville, displayed a new backdrop for this year's performances. Dave Para, Artistic Director, Festival Committee member and performer shared the following -

"I believe the festival has been graced with a major work of art. Lots of people think of quilting as quaint and sometimes exquisite folk art and tend not to think of it as studio art. For those folks I would highly recommend a visit to the Museum of American Quilters in Paducah, KY, but for a quicker trip they can come to the Big Muddy Folk Festival where it will be displayed every year."

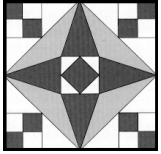

Performers onstage during the festival with new quilt show banner.

The following is from the program of the Big Muddy Folk Festival -

"Our new, amazing festival banner is an 18'X7' slice quilt conceived, designed and sewn by six area women. Working from a photograph of the Missouri River from atop Harley Park, they have depicted in stunning fabric art the changing seasons on the river. Friend and festival patron, Mona Stevenson directed the project. In seasonal order the quilters (early spring) Karon Hugler, (late spring) Suzanne Henage, (summer) Christy Gray; (autumn) Patty Cantu, (late autumn) Mona Stevenson, and (winter) Janice Haralson. Thank you for this stunning work of art that so fits the festival, its history and where it happens!"
