BOONESLICK TRAIL QUILTERS' GUILD

CEO's Message

It has been quite the week for me. I was at a quilting retreat with friends and completed a large old UFO. I keep thinking, why did I not get the quilt finished when I took the class? I am really happy with it and just need to complete the quilting. This brought 2 questions to mind to ask all of you. What stops you from completing a project you start? What gets you motivated to pick it up again and finish it? The friendship and fun at a retreat always do it for me. I come home and I feel like I will quilt all day every day. LOL!

Please consider the BTQG retreat next spring. It is always such fun and the uninterrupted quilting time is great for finishing a UFO. If you have a question or problem there is likely someone there to help. Try to get to know a fellow member a little better.

A Message from Pat —

At our next meeting Alice Leeper will present a program about the quilts and blocks of her late mother, Edith Leeper, who was a long-time member of the guild and a collector of the Kansas City Star quilt blocks. You don't want to miss this program. See you soon.

Pat Leistner
Day Chapter President

A Message from Connie —

Can you believe it is already November? Fall is in the air.

Our speaker is Teajuana Mahone from St. Louis. She is the "Scrap Queen of Quilting". The program is called Jack of All Trades Trunk Show. It features at least 100 quilted items and shows the progression of her quiltmaking along with various quilting techniques being presented throughout the lecture. I hope you all will enjoy this program.

Starlight Chapter President

Donations Sales

Thank you, thank you, thank you! As of the October guild meetings, we have raised $3,401 through donation sales, Amazon Smile, and Senior Center Sales. We've achieved 80% of our general fundraising goals in the first four months of this guild year, which is fantastic. We will continue to bring donated items to sell and we are rotating the inventory so that there is always something fresh for you to see. Bring your cash, checks, and credit cards to shop at the November guild meetings. Please note that in order to support the Christmas auctions, we will not be bringing donated items to sell at the December meetings.

Marketplace Update

We're off to a great start on planning and making items to sell at the 2022 quilt show, and we're very pleased with the number of members who have checked out kits. Just a reminder that January and February meetings will be virtual, so be sure to stop by the Marketplace table at the November and December guild meetings so that you have projects to work on over the cold winter months. Don't forget that we are also more than happy to take projects that you have created on your own and would like to donate to the Marketplace.

Celebration Time!!!

One of our guild members has never had a birthday party. But that's going to change. Kathryn Jones will be enjoying a very special 90th birthday party given by her children, and they have invited all of us!

January 15 (Saturday) 2-4 pm
 First Christian Church
 130 North Jefferson, Marshall, MO

They understand that wintry weather may prevent some from attending in person, but all are welcome. The family invites everyone to send Kathryn birthday cards; please share a favorite memory or picture. Please write "Do not open until your birthday" on the envelope, so she can save them up for the big day.

Happy Birthday!!!

Nov. 2 Pat Hildebrand
 Nov. 4 Dorothy Leeper
 Nov. 10 Wanda Marvel
 Nov. 11 Carolyn Keith
 Nov. 25 Paula Smith

WANTED!

We are on the hunt for any orphan blocks that you would be willing to contribute. Please give to Martha Eberhard. Many of these blocks will begin a new life as one of these adorable orphan critters. Look for them at the Quilt Show Marketplace in 2022!

SASH Interest Group News

On the 30th of September, ten of us gathered at Parkade Park on a beautiful fall day. We talked, laughed, shared stories and had show and tell. Linda Karns gave a demo on Marti Michell's no-binding, no-bulk technique.

Our next meeting will be a Halloween party on October 27th from 2-4 pm at Parkade Park. Come and play with us! Bring your sense of humor!

Secret Sister Information Sheet

The Secret Sister activity is optional, but a lot of fun. The idea is to pass anonymous little gifts or tokens to your secret sister throughout the weekend and one larger gift to be delivered on Monday morning. The idea is not to spend a lot of money and try not to spend over $20 the “big” gift. Wrap the big gift with your secret sister’s name on the outside and include a card with your name inside the package. *Please turn it in at the registration table at retreat when you arrive.***
