BOONESLICK TRAIL QUILTERS' GUILD

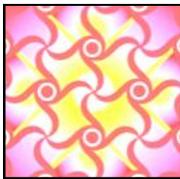

CEO's Message

Isn't shopping at our guild meetings wonderful? Each month different items donated from the Jackie Pruneau estate and from community member Marion Harter will be for sale. Proceeds go to the general fundraising for the guild, and will greatly help since we needed to skip last year's quilt show. Keep making your quilts though because we are having a quilt show next fall!!!!!! See info in other parts of this newsletter.

I have received a request from the family of former member Janice Gaston. They plan to donate some fabric to the guild but also wondered if we had any members who would be interested in doing some restoration on some of the older quilts. Please contact me if you have any interest and expertise and I will get you the family's information.

Pat Leistner is looking for some help each month with the sound system. Some of the parts are a little heavy and she needs help. Please contact her if you attend the day guild meetings and could help her.

A Message from Pat —

Our October speaker, Kathy Delaney, has a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in art education from the University of Arizona and loves teaching quilting techniques. She has been absorbing everything she can that is quilt related since she began quilting in 1991. Kathy has belonged to and been active in several quilt guilds during her quilting journey. She has worked and taught at Prairie Point Quilts in Shawnee, KS since its opening in June of 1995.

Many of Kathy's quilts have been featured in several quilt magazines over the years and have also won many prestigious awards. Kathy has written several quilt books including her seventh, Pots de Fleurs — A Garden of Applique Techniques, published in 2009. She was a featured teacher at the American Quilters

A Message from Connie —

Hello, Fall! Love the cooler nights and not-so-hot days.

The speaker for the Oct 7th Starlight Piecemakers program will be Sharon Wastenev, from Hannibal, Mo. The program is titled "Quilts: Preserving the Family, Sharing the Stories." You can read more about all the wonderful things she does at sharonwastenev@gmail.com. A big thank you again for all the labels you ladies sewed on. Boo! took 32 chemo quilts to University Hospital and Irmgard and I took 20 quilts and 7 flannel blankets to Ronald McDonald House, and 6 larger quilts to True North. They were very much appreciated. See you on Oct. 7th!

Sewing Machines for Sale

Former guild member Jackie Pruneau has passed away and her family graciously donated her quilting items to the guild to use for fundraising and service projects. Part of the donation included several sewing machines along with all needed parts and accessories and their original owners' manuals. Debbie Odor has spent considerable time assembling, testing and re-searching each of the machines and they are now available for sale.

Husqvarna 6690 Viking

This machine was made in 1981 (40 years old) and was last serviced in 2003. It's had a board replacement and the cartridges do not work as designed, but the straight and zigzag stitches are solid. This could be a good starter machine for someone just getting into sewing. Suggested value is $50.

New Home Janome Memory Craft 8000

Purchased in 1991, this machine is 30 years old. It uses cartridges similar to Game Boy to send files to the small embroidery unit which appears to have a circular stitch area of approximately 2-1/2" in diameter, perfect for baby clothes. There are 3 fonts of letters and numbers as well as 12 more design cartridges. The embroidery part seems to work flawlessly. The straight and zigzag stitches are solid, but the decorative stitches don't work as expected. All original feet are present, as well as a 1/4" piecing foot. This could be a nice starter machine. Suggested value is $300.

HuskyLock Serger 560EDT

This machine was also purchased in 1991 (30 years old). It was threaded and ready to sew a 3-thread overcast and it sewed perfectly. Suggested value is $50.

Proceeds from the sale of these donated items will go to BTQG General Fundraising.

If interested in any of these machines, please contact Debbie Odor (Debbie.odor@gmail.com or 901-218-1345) or Martha Eberhard (marthaeberhard@hotmail.com or 573-356-0311).

Shop 'Til You Drop! Then Quilt 'Til You Wilt!

Quilters Garage Sale Oct. 8-9
 Friday 8:00 - 5:00, Sat 8:00 - 3:00
 Address: 810 Yale, Columbia MO 65203

Due to the passing of Becky Paneck and Susan Forrest Kelley, and the fact that Jackie Berry has moved to the Columbia area and is downsizing, friends of the quilters will be hosting a garage sale for the husbands at 810 Yale Columbia on Fri. Oct 8 from 8:00 - 5:00, Sat 8:00 - 3:00. Items include pattern books, yarns, threads, beads, fabrics, quilting tools, etc.

I have a Baby Lock Model BLQK2 Sashiko Machine for sale. This machine is straight stitch only and duplicates the sashiko hand stitches. It's loads of fun and the results are impressive. I'm not using it much since I'm concentrating on free motion quilting. Price is $800. You're welcome to try it any time.

Society Quilt Show in April 2003 and at the AQS show in Nashville in 2006. She designs patterns for piecing and applique under the name of Fabric Crayon Designs.

The program she will present to us at the October meeting is "When Is a Scrap Quilt Not a Scrap Quilt?" The program invites the answer to the question and illustrates with lots of quilts. We will begin with what your definition is, and then see what quirky ideas Kathy has. Lots of laughter, lots of quilts, lots of food for thought.

Qui It Show 2022

We are thrilled to announce plans for our 2022 Quilt Show!!!!

Where: Fairview Road Church of Christ, 201 S Fairview Road. (Next to the Fairview Clinic)

When: Friday and Saturday, September 16th and 17th, 2022. (with set up the day before on Thursday, the 15th)

Theme: Block by block a quilt is sewn. Block by block a community has grown.

Ten members of the board recently visited the church. Although their multipurpose room was a little smaller than we had wanted, the board voted to have the church as our next location for the quilt show. The positives are that it is very affordable, there is a lot of room for the marketplace, lots of parking, and a good location. So we are very excited to start filling in the details in the coming months!

We were extremely pleased to see a number of members say they would be willing to help with the quilt show when they filled out their membership forms! Let us know what areas would interest you. We will need some members to take the lead with the Opportunity Quilt. It is a lovely quilt made by the Redwork Group and it is finished! We just need someone to spearhead the ticket sales. We will also need someone to spearhead the Silent Auction. Additionally, help will be needed with advertising and other areas of the quilt show. Tell us when you see us, or email us with what you would be willing to help with, or with your ideas!

Angel Wings Clothing Closet Easter Basket Project

Jody Dishman reached out on Facebook looking for quilters for a very special project. Lora Brinkman is hoping to get some help in fulfilling this request.

Note from Lora:

You are going to think I'm crazy, but I know as a team WE CAN DO THIS!!

Goal: 100 quilts for 100 baskets for Easter 2022

Quilt Sizes: 45x50 and 30x38 (Approximate sizes; this gives you an idea. They don't have to be exact)

Types: Boy and girl quilts are needed; any color, style and/or fabric. They aren't picky. They've had quilts with cat fabric, dogs, moons, birds, Disney, etc.)

Date Needed by Lora: April 7th (this is FINISHED quilts for delivery to AWCC; if you need help with quilting, please have them to Lora the sooner the better)

First, Lora has NOT promised 100 quilts. Lora has told Jody she would personally help to provide 20 quilts and reach out to the BTQG members in hopes that others will also help with whatever they can do... 1 top, 2 tops, 20 tops. YOUR CHOICE!

If getting the tops quilted is your hesitation, Lora is offering to collect the tops and quilt them. Trina Pratt has also offered to assist in quilting. Please provide the top and backing. Lora will be scouring deals for batting and has offered to provide batting, if needed. If you have batting scraps to send along with your quilt tops, that is excellent. If not, please do not let that keep you from helping.

If you are willing to help, please contact Lora Brinkman (lora3677@gmail.com; 573-821-0262; Facebook messenger, carrier pigeon, guild meeting, whatever works for you). She's trying to figure out an approximate number, so please think about how many you can help with and let her know that number. If you have an idea of how you can help, don't hesitate to reach out. All help is appreciated and welcome.

Here's information about AWCC and the Easter Basket Project:

Angel Wings Clothing Closet (AWCC) is a 501(c)3 non-profit. They work with foster children in the state of Missouri, providing clothing and essential needs. There are approximately 13,000 children in Missouri foster care.

Every year for the past 4 years AWCC has held an Easter Event. Why Easter? As a foster parent and foster child, it's extremely difficult to attend community events and not run into biological family members. Typically biological family intentionally attend these events in hopes to run into the children. This can be difficult and sometimes dangerous to the children. Foster parents aren't able to relax and the children become very emotional and confused, ruining what should be a fun day.

At Angel Wings Easter Event ONLY those on a list are allowed to attend. They have the sheriff's department, public safety and fire personnel attending. This is to keep kids safe, keep drama down, and help rebuild relationships between police and foster kids.

Every child receives a laundry-basket-sized Easter basket FULL of toys and candy. Each basket also has a special quilt for each child. The laundry basket is lined with the quilt followed by toys, stuffed animals and candy. The quilts are super important to the children. AWCC has received photos from parents after Easter showing the children sleeping with them, taking them to surgery with them, and making forts with them. Every child deserves a special quilt.

Usually the Audrain quilt guild completes 100 quilts for this group each year. However, this year they called to let AWCC know that several of their members were hit by Covid and other medical issues. They just didn't feel that they could complete the 100 quilts needed this year. That is why AWCC decided to reach out to others.

AWCC needs quilts that are like small lap-size quilts. Sizes for older kids are typically 45"x50" and for the smaller kids 30"x38". They can also use some quilts for dolls. Doll quilts are added to baskets for the kids receiving dolls. It would be great fun if a doll's quilt could match the child's quilt. Children coming to the event are from the ages of newborn to 18 years old (typically older children have an intellectual disability). Both boy and girl quilts are needed; any color, style and/or fabric. They aren't picky. They've had quilts with cat fabric, dogs, moons, birds, Disney.... ALL kinds. The kids LOVE the quilts!

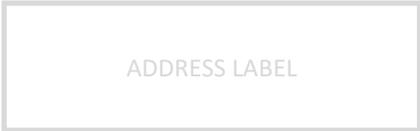

Quilts need to be finished and to AWCC the week prior to Easter. The event will be Saturday April 16th, so finished quilts need to be to AWCC by April 9th. Lora Brinkman will coordinate getting the quilts to AWCC. All you need to do is bring them to a Starlight guild meeting, arrange a time to drop off at Lora's home, or arrange a time for Lora to pick them up from you.

If you are willing to help, please contact Lora Brinkman (lora3677@gmail.com; 573-821-0262; Facebook messenger, carrier pigeon, guild meeting, whatever works for you). She's trying to figure out an approximate number, so please think about how many you can help with and let her know that number. If you have an idea of how you can help, don't hesitate to reach out. All help is appreciated and welcome.
