Boonville Quilt FanAttics Show

Friday and Saturday June 22 & 23
First Christian Church
301 4th—Corner of Morgan and 4th
10 AM—4PM $1 donation requested.

Regular meetings of the Guild are held on the first Monday of the month at 1:00 pm and the first Thursday of the month at 7:00 pm at the Fairview United Methodist Church, 3200 Chapel Hill Rd., Columbia, Missouri.

Message from Starlight Piecemakers' President

I am writing my last column as your official president. Despite all my fussing about the sound system and my inability to set it up, I have found great satisfaction and rewards in the job. (By the way, in May everything went together just right the first time, so maybe I have finally mastered it.)

Since we do not have a President or Vice-President for 2012 -13, Corrine Reimeke and I will cover the president's job and Jean Bruggenjohan (this year's V-P) will cover the vice-president's work through September. Everything will go along normally until then. If we have a volunteer to be President, we can continue meeting as a chapter. If not, we will become an interest group again (as we first began), and the guild does not pay for meeting space for interest groups. With a president we can volunteer to present programs or sit and sew. However, without someone to organize programs, we may find ourselves getting a little bored. If you or a friend or group of friends feel that you may be able to fill either of these positions, please call me or Dennis Smith, who will be next year's CEO.

Quilting is one of the joys of my life. We can do it alone, in small groups or as a guild. I gather inspiration from seeing what the rest of you are doing—and from the sheer volume that some of you produce. I know that quilting won't stop if we are unable to meet together, but, darn it, I will miss seeing all of you.

Love, Marilyn

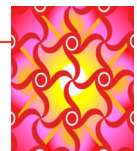

MARILYN RUSSELL WINS BLOCK EXCHANGE AGAIN!

I was in the guild and making exchange blocks very regularly for ten years before I won the drawing to have my blocks made; Now I have won four times in the last three or four years! I don't know if my luck has changed or if only a few of us are letting our names be drawn.

I have chosen to have you make a nine-inch Churn Dash block, the same block as my Starlight Piecemakers president's block. I would very much like to make a full-sized quilt from my blocks so this will give me more to work with. I would like unbleached muslin or very light tan as the background and then have dark tans, browns, rusts, etc.—autumn colors. One of the most beautiful quilts I have seen was a simple Churn Dash in light tan and browns; but I decided to be a little more adventuresome in color.

Don't you just love quilting! Marilyn

Library News

We have a variety of new books coming.

Quilts of Virginia 1607-1899 anticipates Virginia's 400th anniversary in 2007 by presenting over 270 beautiful historic quilts and ephemera in over 430 color and vintage photographs. From quilted armor of the 17th century to crazy quilts of the 19th century, these personal family and museum treasures include homespun work of slaves and fancy work of freed women and First Ladies. The contents derive from the study of more than 3,000 quilts statewide that were meticulously examined by the Virginia Consortium of Quilters Documentation Project. This beautiful book is an important contribution to quilting history and Virginia heritage.

Other new books:

All-In-One Quilter's Reference Tool: Easy-To-Follow Charts, Tables and Illustrations, Yardage Requirements, Cutting Instructions

Setting Secrets, (etc.) by Harriet Hargrave

Layer Cake, Jelly Roll & Charm Quilts by Pam Lintott

Landscape Quilts by Nancy Zieman

Create Your Own Free-Form Quilts: A Stress-Free Journey to Original Design by Rayna Gillman

Quilting Modern: Techniques and Projects for Improvisational Quilts by Jacquie Gering
60 Pieced Quilt Borders: Mix & Match by Judy L. Laquidara

Scrap Therapy Cut the Scraps! 7 Steps to Quilting Your Way through Your Stash by Joan Ford.

Your librarians are inventorying and labeling all the library's collection. Hope to see you at the next meeting.

Linda Karns and Pat Leistner

Quilts entered for the Quilt Show must be at the Holiday Inn by 6:00 PM Sunday June 10

Quilts can be delivered between 3:00 PM and 6:00 PM Sunday June 10 with the appropriate label attached. Any quilt received after 6:00 PM will not be accepted for the Show!

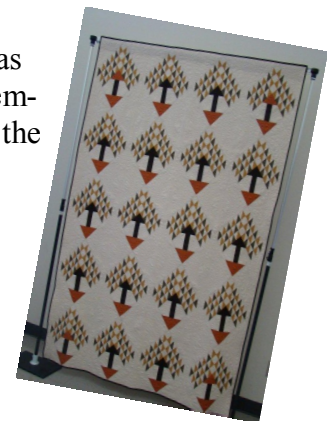

Market Place Items are needed to be sold to our guest. Please spend some time making 1 or 2 or 3 to WOW our friends. You may even find something you can't live without at the show. Remember we are wishing for items with today's bright colors.

Have you volunteered for the Quilt Show? There is still time and a need for volunteers. Contact Suzanne Henage at 573-445-7949. No matter how limited your time is we will find just the perfect time slot and spot.

The Tree of Life

This year's raffle quilt is based on the 'Tree of Life' block. It was designed by Kim Diamond, pieced by BTQG members and assembled and quilted by Connie Gresham. Mary Petersen completed the quilt by adding the border.

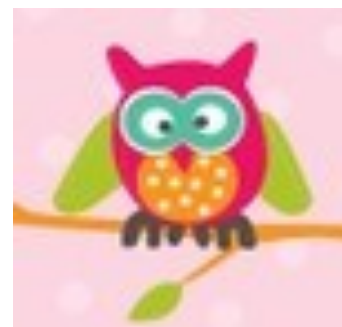

One of your friends would thoroughly enjoy taking this quilt home to compliment any room in their house. Every year the BTQG raffle quilt is an admired work of art and also a favorite quilt to win. Purchase a few raffle tickets for a special friend and surprise them with a lovely gift to remember you and the quilt guild's quilters!

Craft Fair Volunteers

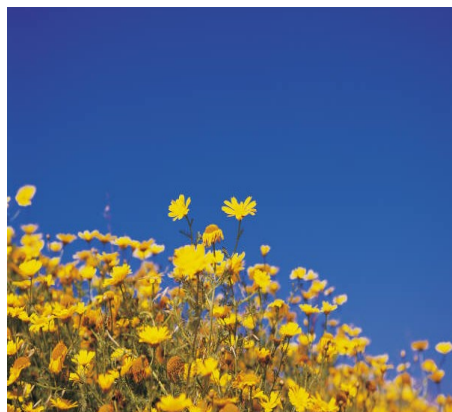

The Guild will have a booth at the annual Craft Fair on November 11th. We will showcase our beautiful quilts, wall hangings and other items to the Columbia residents looking for spectacular holiday gifts. As always volunteers will be needed. Look for information in a future newsletter so you can participate.

Redwork Christmas Workshop

By Ann Hazelwood

Friday, July 6, 2012, 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM

Hy-Vee (Upstairs meeting room at west entrance)
405 E. Nifong Blvd. Columbia MO 65201

This workshop is a beginner's introduction to embroidery as it relates to Redwork. Ann will begin with a little history and show Redwork pieces before you start sewing.

When Ann owned Patches, a quilt shop in St. Charles, MO, she designed a block of the month with small Christmas designs. She produced all of them in one quilt, which she will bring to the workshop. You will get to choose which design you want, which is part of your kit. The kit also provides a pieced arrangement or you can use your finished project as an ornament. She will have the other designs for purchase at $3.00 each to do the complete set.

Participants will receive the kit, which includes fabric, pattern and floss. Participants need to bring embroidery needles, small scissor and a hoop. A red jellyroll pen is optional.

This workshop is limited to 20 participants.

Detach and return registration to:

Jean Brueggenjohann, 410 Cumberland Rd., Columbia, MO 65203, 573 817-1679
Brueggenjohannj@missouri.edu

Registration must be mailed postmarked not earlier than June 5, 2012

Fee: $25.00 must be included with registration form. Make check payable to BTQG.
(See BTQG directory for cancellation policy)
