Starlight June Meeting

Per the new Boonslick Trail by-laws the Starlight Chapter is not having a regular June meeting due to the annual meeting. However, we are taking the opportunity to have a "New Member Social". Boo and I have been calling new members from the last year and inviting them to this special meeting. If we missed getting in touch with you please call me.

The meeting will focus on the workings of the guild and review the new member packet. We will describe each committee and encourage new members to get involved in the guild by helping on a committee. Merrell will discuss the Guild library and what is available, how to find a book or author you are looking for, and tools and templates available to borrow.

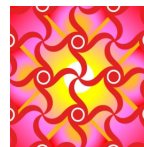

Current members are welcome and encouraged to bring one of their first quilt projects to show. Stories about how you became interested in quilting or how you came to join the BTQG will be requested. REMEMBER; please let us know if you are coming so we can prepare enough refreshments. Email me at jikirk@yahoo.com or leave a message on my answering machine 573-397-4021.

Items to Remember: The annual meeting is the deadline to turn in your "Hot Pad Challenge" entry. Be sure an entry form is attached. We will have an independent judge select the top 3 winners and ribbons and prizes will be awarded at the July Starlight Meeting (July 11th).

Donations for the Country market that is part of the Country Fair meeting are requested. Plant and extra flower or veggie.....bundle up some unwanted fat quarters.....a tool you haven't used in a long time....or a book you want to pass on. You get the idea. It's all for fun and all items will be very inexpensive with all proceeds go to the BTQG.

Happy Quilting, Judi Kirkpatrick

Jean Warren "19th Century Quilts

You all have made this a great year in Day Chapter! Your show and tell always amazes me—so much talent in our guild. Your talents are evident at the hospitality table, too! Thanks for giving your time and talents to make Day Chapter a success. You all are the BEST!

Our new guild year starts July 1. There will be many new ways to serve without committing to 12 months of duty. Start thinking about how you'll fit in to the new guild structure.

I hope you'll join an interest group in the new year. These small groups are a great learning opportunity and a chance to make new friends. Perhaps someone will start a new group to meet for half price milkshakes!

Be sure to thank our Day Chapter board. June is their last month to serve. They have worked so effectively and efficiently that my job has been easy. Thanks to each of you for your support and encouragement and for laughing, or at least smiling, at my attempts at humor. I love you!

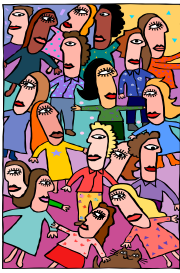

Read Laura's article about our fabulous June program. We may even have some door prizes. I'll see all of you Monday, June 3.

Carol Jean

Jean Warren—June 3rd Speaker

Jean Warren, historic fabric expert and owner of James Country Mercantile of Liberty, Missouri, will present "Historic Quilts of the 19th Century". A mix of original quilt tops, original quilt blocks, and photographs of period quilts will be included in her presentation from the 1840 through 1900. Jean is also a sutler. A sutler is a civilian merchant who sells provisions to an army in the field, in camp or in quarters from the James Country Mercantile.

Jean will share how you can be fully equipped for your next tour of duty protecting Columbia!

Starlight Piecemakers News
June 6, 2013 Meeting

On June 6 at 7:00 pm, the Starlight Piecemakers chapter will host a new member social. All current members and those new this year are invited to join us at Fairview Methodist Church. It will be a chance to visit, meet new friends, and answer questions. Please bring a sample of your first quilting project and your most current project. If you are planning to attend please RSVP to bookula22@gmail.com or 449-0346 or to Judi Kirkpatrick at jikirk@yahoo.com or 397-4021.

The current quilt year is coming to an end. We have enjoyed wonderful programs and speakers arranged through a lot of hard work and thought by Judi Kirkpatrick. Betty White has efficiently kept minutes of our board meetings, Mona Stephenson and Nancy Antonio managed the exchange blocks, Cathy Forbes and Mavis Mitzel have greeted members and visitors at the door, Cecile Mazan and Lori Isles have provided lovely receptions. Many people provide their time to keep the chapter available for members to attend, learn, hear new information, and enjoy the friendship of the Starlight Piecemakers chapter. We hope members will volunteer their time next quilt year to continue the growth of the Booneslick Trail Quilter's Guild.

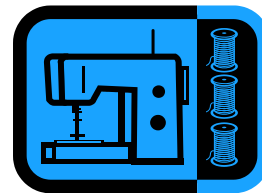

To you from Boo!

Starlight Piecemakers Chapter Block of the Month Winner—Nancy Antonio

I have been quilting or at least piecing for eleven years. I have always loved to work with colors and regret that I did not have any art training. I took a quilt class and I was hooked. I have two daughters who have given me 5 grandchildren. So my first attempts in quilting were baby quilts. Now I am making graduation quilts. How did that time go so fast. Quilt history has broaden my knowledge about the textile industry. It has certainly contributed to America’s growth and development. I have appreciated how much I have learned from my fellow quilters. I have serve in various offices with the quilt guild and have made many new friends. I like to help with the service project quilts and have chosen a pattern to make a quilt for a child. The name of the pattern is magic circle: however, there is no curved piecing. Thank you for created a quilt for a child.

Day Chapter Block of the Month Winner—Donna Baker

I know I am a very lucky lady, I have a reputation of being luck, so I am very fortunate. So this last block of this session is going to be easy. I love to quilt and love to do all types of blocks. I am going to do a block, Flying Geese. I am going to do the same block that Joan Pottinger did last month. It was lots of fun and very easy and I can use it as a border in a quilt.

I’ve lived in Fayette for 17 years and came from San Diego. Our children and grandchildren are still in San Diego and San Luis Obispo. They love to come visit and do all the fun farm things every summer. Thank you for making the Flying Geese block.
