Starlight Piece makers' Chapter Meeting

Thur. July 11, 2013
Doors Open at 6 pm
Meeting and Program at 7 PM
Fairview Methodist Church

BTQG STARLIGHT PIECEMAKERS COUNTY FAIR!

On July 11, we will have our own County Fair. The hot pad challenge entries have been turned in and are being judged by an independent judge. Prizes and ribbons will be awarded at the fair. The fair is for fun and to have interaction with other Guild members. I challenge you to get acquainted with a member you don't really know.

We will have a General Store. We have had donations from past and current members. You are encouraged to donate a new or used item to the General Store.

- * Jar of homemade jam or pickles
- * Seedlings
- * Veggies from you garden
- * Unwanted fat quarters
- * Quilting tools
- * Quilting book

The fair food will include all your favorites—hot dogs, nachos, and food on a stick.

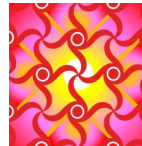

There will be lots of door prizes and games and you can win a dessert at the "Cake Walk". If you would like to help at one of the games, please call Judi, at 660-734-0358.

A visit from a special guest "Madame Pincushion" who will be giving quilt fortunes.

The July meeting is sure to be exciting as the first meeting of the new (fiscal) year for the Starlight Piecemakers. We have new officers, new activities planned, new interest groups forming, and new opportunities to serve your guild. I look forward to seeing you there on July 11.

SALAD LUNCHEON & SMALL WONDERS

I'm looking forward to being your next president of the Day Chapter. It will not be easy to be following Carol Tummons, who makes everything such fun. However, I will do my best and am always open to your comments, thoughts and suggestions. What a great way to start off my term in July with a "Sit and Sew" at 9:00, "Free Motion Quilting Class at 10:00 and a "Salad Luncheon" at 12:00. Please remember to bring your own serving utensils.

Also, since July is a special month, bring any patriot quilts along with your regular Show and Tell items.

We will have a short program about Interest Groups and Karon Huggler will introduce you to "Small Wonders".

I can't think of a better day than sharing food and fellowship with fellow quilters.

See you July 1. Mary Peterson

 Barb Nixon has a large committee that will be helping with the Winter Retreat. There isn't room to list them all above in the list of Guild committees members, but it is great to see so many volunteers that I wanted to publically acknowledge their involvement—

Martha Eberhard, Dianne Jackson Lauri Rich, Kristin Kunze, Alice Leeper, Maria DeLamatre, Janet Sapp, Julie Martin, Lauri Murphy - thanks to all!

To you from Boo!

The new member social in June introduced members to a variety of beginning quilts and recent projects. It was delightful to see the talent and to see growth. We heard many stories and learned how everyone is dedicated to producing projects using a variety of methods. After the meeting one member reported her enjoyment of the meeting and commented that it was like attending an AA meeting. It was a pleasant evening and we hope the new members felt welcome and ready to continue their talent.

Time to start a new year in the guild.

Boo! Kula

Ladies: I would like to thank all the people who helped with programs over the past year. I would especially like to thank the quilt holders I grabbed at meetings with speakers who had lots of quilts to show.

A donation was made (to the BTQG) in the memory of my daughter, Desiree White. Although she was not yet a quilter we were planning a rock and roll t-shirt. I know she would have done enjoyed it greatly, and probably even caught the passion we share.

So many of you guild members have been supportive to me, with cards, hugs, words, messages, and other sharing. I am so appreciative. Thank you all.

I'm Betty White and I am one of the lucky people to be chosen for this last group of exchange blocks. I have been a member of BTQG since 2009, getting a late start because of teaching for 35 years. Retirement is now allowing me time to do some of those items on my "bucket list".

I enjoy traveling and nothing pleases me more than combining shop hopping and quilting with my travels. I'm looking forward to a New England/Canadian Quilt Cruise this October and another to Panama in April. Between trips I find time to play with my granddaughter who will be 3 in August.

My husband is a fiddle, playing traditional "old time" music. He teaches, yearly, at a Youth Fiddle Camp in Bethel, Missouri and I provide a quilt for the group to auction to raise money for a camp scholarship. This year's was finished just hours before needing to be delivered. As you might guess, I'm still trying to decide on my block but I will have everything ready for distribution at the July meeting. I'm looking forward to seeing you there.

Dear Quilters,

I am so excited to be one of the last Friendship Quilt recipients! My name was one of two pulled in the day group this June. I am new to the guild as I started in July of 2012. Steve and I have lived in Columbia for 11 years now following his retirement from the Air Force. I taught middle school until this year and so am now happily spending more time with friends and quilting, sewing and crafts as well as reading and learning to cook again. The quilt I have chosen is a basic nine patch with a twist. The colors are set so that when finished it will be an American flag. I have made up the baggies with all nine patches so all I need is for you to put it together according to the directions and sign in the white space. I have really enjoyed the presentations this year, the friendship and interest from members and appreciate the work you do for service projects. It will be an honor to have a quilt representing my new quilting friends! Thank you for your support!
