Noon - Special Luncheon

1:00 pm Meeting, Program, Show and Tell
Fairview Methodist Church

Earlier this year a number of you loaned quilts for a trunk show in Jefferson City for the Missouri River Quilt Guild. This month, they will return the favor at our Starlight meeting. If you've attended one of their quilt shows, you know they have some talented quilters, so I'm sure we'll be seeing some beautiful and inspiring quilts. Please give them a warm welcome on Thursday Oct. 6. Doors will open at 6 PM, with the meeting beginning at 7. Irmgard will be out of town, so it will be my job to keep things rolling. See you there!

Our holiday dinner will be December 1. I'm needing 2-3 (or more) people to help plan and help decorate the event. Once the quilt show is complete, I'd like to get started so we don't have a hectic rush at the last minute. Contact me by e-mail or see me at the October meeting if you'd like to help.

ANSWERS TO SEPTEMBER QUIZ FOR QUILTERS

These are the correct answers to the Sept. puzzle.
Bettina

Quilters Hall of Fame honorees from the Sept. puzzle: Amy Emms, Cuesta Benberry, Barbara Brackman, Eleanor Burns, Grace Snyder, and Marie Webster,

There were eight correct entries. The drawing will be at the first October meeting.

The October QUIZ FOR QUILTERS is on page 7.

October will be an especially exciting month for the Day Chapter. Our guest speaker is Carol Jones. Carol of Lawrence, Kansas, has co-authored two books with her friend, and quilt collaborator, Bobbi Finley, who lives in San Jose, California.

Their first book was Tile Quilt Revival: Reinventing a Forgotten Form, C&T Publishing. Their next book was Fresh Perspectives: Reinventing 18 Classic Quilts from the International Quilt Study Center & Museum, C&T Publishing.

Carol's quilts have twice been featured on the cover of Quilters Newsletter, many times in the pages of that magazine as well as American Quilter, in Patchwork Tsushin, on the cover of Barbara Brackman's America's Printed Fabrics 1770-1890, and in many other publications, including Judi Warren Blaydon's Collage + Cloth = Quilt. In 2004 and 2005, a quilt made by Carol with Bobbi Finley and Georgann Eglinski traveled throughout Japan in the exhibition, Japanese Imagery in One Hundred Quilts, which featured the work of 75 artists from Japan and 25 artists from other countries. In the fall of 2013, twelve free-form wall quilts, Carol's Calendar of Quilts, was exhibited at the Strecker-Nelson Pop Up Gallery in Manhattan, Kansas. Among the topics Carol lectures on is the nineteenth-century type of appliqué quilts known as tile quilts and the recent revival of the genre. Her presentation at our meeting will be on Tile Quilt Revival. Carol was here for a workshop on Tile quilts several years ago and the range of information about this style of quilt has continued to expand. If you took that workshop please bring any project you completed to share both with Carol and with our members.

In addition to our speaker we will have as our guests about twenty quilters from the United Kingdom. They will join us for a salad luncheon and will also be bringing "show 'n tell". The tour group will have begun their two-week tour of American quilting with our quilt show and meeting. Please come and welcome them to the USA!

Don't miss this meeting. We will open the doors for Sit and Sew at 9:00am.

The library committee has finished the inventory and found there are books missing. Please check for guild books on your shelves at home. We do need to check out books when they take them to their chairs so we get a better idea of how much is being read.

Continue to check out books from our collection of quilt history, projects and techniques. There are many choices to make.

Bonne Femme Book Group will meet Oct. 18, at DBRL, 1 p.m. The October title is THE KEY ON THE QUILT, Stephanie Grace Whitson. All guild members are welcome.

CEO's Message

In our Board of Directors meeting this month one new motion was made, and approved, that I would like to bring to everyone's attention. In discussing Day Chapter meetings for 2017, the January and July dates fall on Mondays shortly after or before holidays. Please make note and update your calendars that the January meeting has been rescheduled to January 9th instead of January 2nd and the July meeting has been rescheduled to July 10th instead of July 3rd. If you have any additional questions about either of those dates and/or programs, please contact Ustena Simenson or Joyce Campbell.

As an update to our Board members, I am happy to announce Merrill Winfield is officially appointed as the Historian co-chair and Sandy Womack is officially appointed as the Librarian co-chair. I welcome both of these volunteers for their participation in the Board meetings when Virginia (who travels the world!) or Louise cannot attend. Our Board meeting was filled with very constructive conversation and progressive reports that you will see in additional articles throughout this newsletter. One being the quilt show!!

And on that note, I would be remiss in not thanking the quilt show committee in advance for their dedication, determination and hard work in preparing and producing this year's exhibit. That note of thanks also includes all of the volunteers signed up to work the event as well as the Guild members who created the works of art that will be on display. It takes the entire Guild to pull this major fundraiser off and I look forward to seeing many of you there in just a few weeks. Please be sure to read more about the quilt show in Mindy's article in this newsletter.

Our next event to get ready for is the winter retreat! That's a committee I've heard is the "best" committee to be on. Plans underway for the retreat are sure to bring a respite from the winter doldrums in addition to having some fun with fellow Guild members. Spots are filling fast so don't be left out in the cold!

This year's slate of day and evening programs are filled with a variety of educational topics as well as entertainment you won't want to miss. My hope is everyone looks forward to the activities planned this year and enjoys the fellowship that comes with it! And of course, the holidays are right around the corner. What fun...what fun!

The fields are harvested and bare, and winter whistles through the square. October dresses in flame and gold like a woman afraid of growing old. —Anne Mary Lawler

THE BRITISH ARE COMING

For, our October 3 Day Chapter meeting, we are having an English tea luncheon to honor our 20 English quilter guests who will be attending.

The Traditional group has volunteered to serve as the committee to plan the luncheon. We will provide sliced chicken, ham, bread and condiments.

We ask members to bring salad or dessert, your choice. Hot tea will be provided at each table in tea pots covered with tea cozies plus a pitcher with cream to add to your tea if you wish. Tea cups and saucers will be available.

Please plan to attend and entertain our guests. Please be sure to provide two places at each table for our guests so we all have a chance to visit with them over lunch.

Hope to see you there. It's going to be fun.

Joyce Campbell

QUILTING THROUGH THE SEASONS OCTOBER 1-2, 2016

Well.....you gorgeous BTQG chicks.....you have done it again.....we are going to have a beautiful, beautiful quilt show in 2016.....and it is finally just days away. The committee this year has been phenomenal.....what an outstanding job they have done over the past months. And I must give Janet Hollandsworth a huge thank you.....she has done brilliant things with the show information on our website.....(and btw, Janet has a brand new baby grandson!!)

A reminder to make time on Saturday afternoon to go to the Mizzou Botanic Garden presentation, "Look for Inspiration in Nature" with Pete Millier, Director of MBG. Visit Bradley Meinke at his Purple "B" Emporium Miniature Exhibit. And, of course, Dawn Heese will have a booth with all her beautiful Linen Closet Design patterns. Dawn's wool on cotton applique classes on Saturday morning and Sunday afternoon still have some openings and now we have kits for her classes, thanks to our darling Ann Rennie. Be sure to note on your registration form if you would like a kit ($5.00). Then, thanks to Hsiao-Mei Wiedmeyer we have added the international richness to our exhibits with the loveliness of three of her Hmong Pa ndau quilts....thank you so much, Hsiao-Mei for this very special quilt exhibit.

I asked Janet for an on-line volunteer sign-up on our website and magic Janet did it. SO, check the website for openings in the volunteer schedule. Go to btqg.missouri.org, click on the "Click here to learn more about the upcoming BTQG 2016 Quilt Show!" and then click on the "Quilt Entry (members only)" tab. In that screen you will see, "Please sign up to fill one of the volunteer slots." At this point we are still needing to confirm the use of people and pickups to get the equipment and then return all the equipment. We like to have 3 pickups.....at this point we have 2 vehicles for Thursday and none for Sunday. Note that the schedule for Thursday to get the equipment and Sunday delivery back to the storage unit is on the same grid.....just put in the comments which day you are available. Also, I want to suggest to you that having this information on line, you can now go in any time and check to make sure you have your schedule noted correctly on your calendar.

The t-shirts are beautiful—thank you Diane Jackson and Barb Nixon.....the Hand 2 Heart Market has lots of beautiful items—thank you Hank/Martha, et al.....and the Silent Auction has some wonderful items as well—thank you Ustena!! And, of course, THE STAR OF THE SHOW, your 170 quilts that we will be exhibiting! Perfect!!

All of you.....have a wonderful time this year during our quilt show and enjoy being together during this really special time for us!!!Mindy

Quilt Show Entries

Your entries for the 2016 BTQG quilt show should be delivered to Stoney Creek Inn between the hours of 8 a.m. and 12 noon on Friday, September 30th. Remember that your quilt needs a sleeve and that the label you printed when you entered your quilt, needs to be attached to the back. Hang on to your claim check. You will need it to claim your quilt after the show. Quilts will be ready for pickup on Sunday, October 2nd at 6 p.m.

LET'S PLAY DOLLS:

Workshop fee $15, Class to be held Oct. 22, 2016 , 9:00 - noon at Quilt 4 U, 908 Rain Forest Pkwy, Columbia, MO 65205

Is there some poor little doll huddling somewhere without a quilt? Let's correct that. If you are a grandmother needing to have a quilt for your pretend great grandchild or just like small quilts this is the workshop for you. The quilt will be a seven panel "strippy" quilt either 26" x 30" or 16 1/2" x 22 1/2". You choose the size. The process is exactly the same. Students will piece four patch blocks to be set into "strippy" panels. You will learn how to align the blocks in the panels for straight lines across to avoid a wavy finish. It's perfect for an American Girl™ doll. All the planning and calculations have been done for you so you can just have fun. (This size makes great preemie quilts.)

Supply list:

1/8 yard each of five small prints, medium to dark, 5/8 yard of a medium scale print
 1/2 yard of a background print that will contrast with the small prints rotary cutter, mat, and ruler (6"x 12" will be fine)
 scissors and seam ripper sewing machine, cord and power foot neutral thread and pre-wound bobbins straight pins
 pencil or colored pencil visible on your medium print.
 All workshops require a chalkboard or flip chart.

Workshop fee is $15 per person. Registration is open immediately. Registration form on pg 7.
