BOONESLICK TRAIL QUILTERS' GUILD

Starlight Piecemakers Chapter Meeting NO STARLIGHT CHAPTER MEETING IN JUNE

No Starlight meeting this month! We'll see you at the annual meeting June 1. We are so excited about having Liz Porter here! She has been a teacher and inspiration for generations of quilters. Here's a link with some of her story that I found interesting: <https://www.apqs.com/up-close-quilting-with-liz-porter/> Not surprisingly, we will have many guests! Be sure to greet them and make them welcome.

When Starlight meets again in July, we will have new officers and program chairs. I want to thank all the wonderful people who served as board members, committee members and ad hoc volunteers. You're great, and it was a pleasure working with you. And many thanks to those who are stepping into new roles for the next year. I won't have any formal roles next year, but I plan to pitch in and help when needed. I hope you will too. It's a great way to get to know others and to make our guild great. Here's to another year!

— Linda

Day Chapter Meeting NO DAY CHAPTER MEETING IN JUNE

There are no chapter meetings in June, but I hope to see everyone at the annual meeting!

This has been a great year, thanks to Willie's wonderful programs, her workshop, and the entertaining Christmas auction.

Many thanks to all who helped out during the year, especially in the wake of my injury. It has been my pleasure to serve as your president, and I look forward to helping our new officers with next year's activities.

— Debbie Odor

Annual Meeting Brunch.

June 1, 2019, 9:00 a.m.

Fairview United Methodist Church 3200 Chapel Hill Rd. Columbia, MO

Here's what you need to know....

Members should bring a brunch dish to share pot luck. Brunch can be breakfast or lunch fare. We will be able to keep things warm in the ovens, space permitting. Please bring your own serving utensil. The guild will provide thinly sliced ham, juice, coffee, tea and water. Label dishes that are gluten free or vegetarian please.

Brunch starts at 9:00, the annual business meeting convenes at 10:00. Our program featuring Liz Porter will begin at 11:00. We have a large number of paying non-member guests who will arrive for the program. Please make them feel welcome (they might turn into members).

Of course, all members are welcome and encouraged to attend brunch, the business meeting and the program. This is a rare opportunity to hear Liz Porter.

CEO MESSAGE

Fellow guild members. Our fiscal year draws to a close as does the board you elected this time last year.

My Thanks goes to all who served and I can assure you they did a good job.

Our annual meeting is approaching and I'm looking forward to all the good food and of course our great speaker. Since it will fall to me next year, Liz Porter will be a tough act to follow! We have quite a few guests coming to hear her speak and we will want to make them feel included and welcome. Who knows, they may decide to join our guild!

The Board decided, after review of the suggestions from the Financial/Odd Year Event committee, to plan for a Vendor Fair this year. It will be late fall and take a lot of work to get it off the ground, but we won't know unless we try if it is a good idea. It seems like volunteer seeking is part of the CEO's job, so here's me asking you to let me know if you could help.

Thank all of you for your support of our guild and for willingly accepting tasks when asked. Please continue to be a part.

Hank Botts

BTQG May 2019 Board Meeting Motions

At the May 14th Board meeting, the executive board passed the following motions:

- Due to the rising costs of speakers, travel, and accommodations, the BTQG annual dues be raised to $35. This will be presented at the annual meeting for members to vote on.
- As a fund raiser, the guild will plan for a vendor fair for fall 2019.
- Authorize the purchase of replacement lavalier microphones.
- BTQG will provide items to sell at a table at the Community Methodist Church craft show in November 2019 as a fundraiser.

Day Chapter Programs Update

We had a nice note from Donna DiNatale thanking us for inviting her to speak about the IQSC and Museum in Lincoln, NE. She also thanked us for the 120 pincushions.

On May 6th Hank Botts, Judy Gieselman, Carrol Lewis, Linda Karns, and myself shared quilts made by BTQG members at the Mexico quilt guild monthly guild meeting. Our thanks to Mona Stevenson, Merril Winfield, Barb Sanders, Betty White, Debbie Odor, Ustena Simenson, Janet Hollandsworth, Barb Nixon, Dianne Jackson, Boo Kula, and Bettina Havig for letting us show their quilts. Linda, Judy, Carrol, and I also showed quilts. We had a great time.

—Willie

Liz is coming, Liz is coming...Save the date!

Booneslick Trail Quilters Guild is hosting a presentation by Liz Porter. This is a rare opportunity to hear Liz speak.

Liz Porter and Marianne Fons will be inducted into The Quilters Hall of Fame in Marion IN this summer. After her visit to Columbia she will go back to Texas and resume making quilts for her own pleasure and improving her golf game. She's technically retired from the quilt circuit...aren't we lucky.

Date: June 1, 2019

Time: 11:00 a.m.

Place: Fairview United Methodist Church,
3200 Chapel Hill, Columbia MO.

We all know Liz Porter...quilt maker, author, and magazine publisher (plus avid golfer). Liz and Marianne fostered the growth of quilt making as teachers travelling to quilt guild throughout the USA for many years. Their magazine "Fons and Porter Love of Quilting" is one of the most influential quilt publications.

Tickets for non-members are available for $5 by sending your check made out to Booneslick Trail Quilters Guild, c/o Bettina Havig, 1108 Sunset Lane, Columbia MO.

A numbered ticket will be returned to you via email. Be sure to include your email either on the check or on paper included with the check. Space is limited.

Quilt Guild Library Notes

A notebook is being put together to make our browsing collection more user-friendly to members. It will include print-outs from the website in these three formats: author (shelf list), title, and keyword (subject).

Books are shelved by the author's last name. Common terms were used for keywords rather than more formal sears headings. More work is probably needed in this area.

Thanks to Sandy Womack for entering these changes in Excel so that webmaster, Janet Hollandsworth, can enter them on the website.

You are invited to come back in the library to browse the shelves—maybe that's the best way to see our collection. Templates, videos, and CDs are located on the last shelf. Book suggestions are welcomed!

Items may be checked out for 2 months—many are due back now.

Please check your own book shelves for BTQG books—we are sill missing some titles. Look for the little sticker on the spine. When you just want to look at a book during our meetings, please leave us the card so we know who has it.

This updated Library notebook will be available at the check-out table.

— Library Committee.

Your 2020 Quilt Show Marketplace

The 2020 Quilt Show seems a long way off, but as you know, it takes time to create items for the marketplace. We want to keep your creative juices flowing over the next 18 months! We always appreciate the beautiful and creative items you donate for sale.

We are looking for small wall hangings, table toppers and runners for all seasons and holidays. We also would like to get all sorts of cute and useful items for babies, children, pets, kitchens, and of course, related to quilting/sewing/crafting.

We will have ideas, samples, and some kits for you in the coming months. Be thinking about what you would like to make.

Please talk to Peggy Brothers, Kathryn Reece, Trina Pratt, and/or Barb Nixon about your ideas for good marketplace items. Be on the lookout for ideas as you travel, shop, and attend quilt shows.

Thank you!

Amazon Smile

FOR ALL YOU AMAZON.COM SHOPPERS!

amazonsmile
You shop. Amazon gives.

- THERE IS A NEW WAY TO SUPPORT THE GUILD – SHOP WITH AMAZON.SMILE

What is AmazonSmile?

- AmazonSmile is a website operated by Amazon that lets customers enjoy the same wide selection of products, low prices, and convenient shopping features as on Amazon.com. The difference is that when customers shop on AmazonSmile (smile.amazon.com), the AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the price of eligible purchases to the charitable organizations selected by customers.

HOW TO MAKE PURCHASES WITH AMAZON.SMILE

1. Access Amazon through <https://smile.amazon.com> instead of amazon.com. Your account will be the same and the items and prices will be the same.
2. The first time you make a purchase through AmazonSmile you will pick the organization you want to support (hopefully it will be Booneslick Trail Quilters Guild!). AmazonSmile will remember your choice and the donations from future purchases will go to that organization.

- REMEMBER - Amazon.Smile purchases can be made by anyone. Encourage anyone you know who shops Amazon to use Amazon.Smile and to choose BTQG to receive the donation from their purchase.

- I will prepare an e-blast with more detailed information. Please let me know if you have any questions.

At Last Their Work Bore Fruit, Winning the Vote

The League of Women Voters and the Boone County Historical Society are developing an exhibit titled At Last Their Work Bore Fruit, Winning the Vote about the effort to win suffrage for women. The exhibit that will open in September 2019 focuses on Boone County suffragists who were active between 1912-1919.

We were inspired to ask quilters to be part of the project when we saw quilts honoring notable women in Herstory, an exhibit at the National Quilt Museum in Paducah, Kentucky.

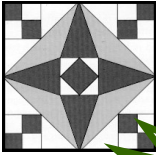

We hope that you will use your talents to honor the people who worked diligently to make sure that all Americans could participate in the political process by voting. We have included images of Boone County people and some of the events around the effort to obtain suffrage for women.

Feel free to use other images since there are great political cartoons about suffrage and other ideas that could be interpreted into pictorial form.

Contact Laurel Wilson, wilsonl@missouri.edu, for more information.

1 Transferred Funds These are carried-over Ops Funds currently in the Guild Checking Acct that are set aside to "Balance" the FY budget if needed. They are the "delta" between Expenses & Earned Income

2 General Fundraising -- In FY2018-2019, to better identify the total income earned from Guild Fundraisers, Pi Days, Garage Sales, Silent Auctions, Donations, etc., will be entered in this line. Portions of this earned income may be transferred to other budget categories with Board Approval. This line does not include income earned by Chapters' for their own use (ex. Day Chap. Workshops, Silent Auctions. That money goes in it's "Other" line.

3 Changes to Chapters' Ops Budgets-- The amount in the Program Expense lines now reflect only Program Speaker-related expenses to clearly identify amt spent for programs only. $$$ Income earned by Chapter fundraisers and Expenses for Hospitality, Chapters' Split Costs, etc., are in new line --"Other". Exception: No change to Day Chapter "Rent/Income" posting (Chapter fundraising to offset the $825 in Income Budget). The $825 is the additional rent for "Sit & Sew" time before Day Chapter mtgs. Total Day Chapter Rent Expense breaks out as $825+825.

4 Special Speaker & Workshop This event will not be held in a FYs in which there is also a Quilt Show.
