BOONESLICK TRAIL QUILTERS' GUILD

CEO's Message

I hope you are all looking forward to the coming Guild year as much as I am. The Committee chairs are working hard to create an exciting and engaging year with something for everyone. We will resurrect the favorite activities and programs we all love, and try a few new opportunities such as a bus trip to Branson for a quilt show. ZOOMing helped keep us in touch this past year and will be used again in January and February when some don't like to get out in the bad weather. Don't forget how to ZOOM. Your suggestions and participation will make the guild come alive again.

A Message from Pat —

The August speaker is Tony Jacobson, from Iowa, a nationally known quilt designer and teacher. He learned to piece quilts from his grandmother, Harriett Wright, when he was ten years old and has been creating quilts in one form or another ever since. In 1992 Tony and his wife, Jeanne, wrote a book called Quilting Around Your Home. Since then, many of his quilt designs have appeared in Fons and Porter Love of Quilting, Easy Quilts, and Quilting Quickly. He has been creating art quilts for many years. He says, "The art quilts are something I do just for myself, and if someone else likes it, all the better."

Pat Leistner
Day Chapter President

A Message from Connie —

Hello BTQG members, can you believe it is August already! We get to actually meet together again and our program is titled "What Were We Thinking?". On April 1st, 2020 Amy and Eric Nelson became the new owners of Appletree Quilting Center, with over 5,000 bolts of fabric & 8500+ square feet! They will present a program on Tips & Tricks in the quilting industry, mitered corners in borders "the easy way" and some Show & Tell. They also offer a long-arm quilting service. So come and sit for a while and enjoy the program.

Connie Richards
Starlight Piecemakers Chapter President

Swap Meet

The August Day Guild Meeting will include a “Swap Meet” from 11am to 12:30pm prior to the Program at 1pm. Tables will be set up for members to put out quilting items they no longer want. Examples are good quilting fabric, quilt patterns, quilt books, tools etc. No $ will be exchanged, all items must be free.

Like the old saying “one person’s junk is another’s treasure” I think the same can be said for your quilting items. Someone else might be looking for that fabric you now think is ugly, or “what was I thinking?”

Here is the catch: YOU must bag up any unclaimed items you brought to donate to charity, or if unsuitable, to the dumpster. Please don’t just abandon items in the meeting room. After this meeting I will fill my car to deliver the suitable donated items. For future use, below is a list of a few places that accept donations. If you know of more, please let me know.

Sharing List

The Columbia Senior Center, 1121 Business Loop 70 East, Columbia, MO will accept quilt magazines up to 5 years old or newer in good condition. They also accept clean, neatly folded quilt fabric (not bags of tiny scraps).

Mobility Worldwide MO—Columbia, 4825 E Meyer Industrial Drive, Columbia, MO 573-886-7877 (formerly known as The Pet Project) is happy to have fabric, including dressmaking materials, even polyester. Please wash before donating. They also like any notions such as thread, zippers, buttons, trims, needles and embroidery thread etc. They also refurbish donated sewing machines to send out to people who need them to help support their families. Be sure to include the foot pedal and power cord. They even take the old black Singer type machines.

If you know of other agencies who take supply donations, please let us know, so we can add them to our list!

Wanted: Read Or Alive!!!

Please look through your quilting library to see if you have any books from BTQG’s library. We are looking forward to having access to our library again! This is a wonderful resource for all members. Stop by during guild meetings and explore all of the books, templates, and other goodies you can check out.

Happy Birthday!!!

A “Caravan” Shop Hop

(Members fill cars/vans and we follow a predetermined route to visit quilt shops, have lunch together, and enjoy lots of fun.)

We will try our first Caravan day trip in August. The details (date and route) will be finalized by the August guild meetings.

Basically, this is how it would work. Grab your quilt friends, figure out who is driving and let’s go. We will meet at a centralized spot where I’ll hand out the itinerary for the day. It will list the order of shops selected, time schedule and where to meet for lunch. I will not be arranging who goes in what car; however, I will act as a “hub” and keep a list of vehicles that have room for another passenger or passengers who do not have a ride and would like one. Passengers will be expected to reimburse the driver for gas, etc. This will be an all-day event.

Since this is the first time I have tried this I am sure there will be a few kinks, but we will work them out.

Let’s GOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO!

—Judi

Be sure to bring your smile to the August guild meetings. Barb Nixon will be taking pictures for those who desire to have a new picture in the annual directory. This will be the last opportunity before the membership booklets are published.

With the resumption of our in-person day chapter meetings, Featherweight Friends may once again gather in the back corner of our meeting room at 10:00 AM. There must be lots of lovely projects completed during our months apart. Bring photos to share (or bring the actual projects to show and tell for the guild meeting!) A new chairperson is needed for the new year (or perhaps two co-chairpersons volunteers.) Let Trina Pratt know if you are interested.

— Pam Close

A MYSTERY TO SOLVE

I hope you can help me solve a mystery and bring a smile to the family of one of our passed members. A year or two ago a family member of a deceased guild member brought items from her sewing room to a guild meeting, to give away. There were several quilt tops, hoops, patterns and odds and ends.

After the meeting I went back to see what was left and I was surprised to see that a nine-patch quilt she had started quilting was still there. The quilt was about a third of the way quilted, and I was so happy to see all ages of fabrics framed by the cream colored solid blocks. Some of the fabrics must have been from her scraps because there were pieces from feed sacks, 1970's up to maybe the 2000's. I love hand quilting so I took it in hopes finishing it myself, but health issues kept me from working on it.

I considered several options and decided to donate the quilt to the St. Mary's Quilt Guild, which makes the quilts for the St. Mary's Medical Scholarship annual fundraiser called the Ice Cream Social. I'm so happy to tell you that the quilt was finished and was highlighted as one of two vintage quilts used for their raffle. The picture of the finished quilt didn't make it to me or it would've been here with the story. This quilt has had a lot of life and I'd love to pass on the brochure it's featured in to the family. I'm sure they'd love to know that their loved one's UFO has made a real difference in the world.

Each quilt has a superpower, and that superpower is the ability to give joy in the most interesting and unexpected ways.

Can you help me solve this mystery? Do you remember the name of the member or the family that brought the items to our meeting? I'll bring the brochure to our next in-person meeting for everyone to see. If you do know the name or have the contact info please call me at 573-634-2162 so I can let them know about the quilt.
