BOONESLICK TRAIL QUILTERS' GUILD

CEO's Message

We are back, yes, back to meeting in person for the March meetings. Last month I was happy to meet from home after the storm but I missed seeing you all. Spring will be here soon and I'm ready for the seasons to change. Speaking of change.....it is time for new officers and committee chairs to take up the reins July 1st and lead for the coming 2022-2023 year. Please consider carefully when you are asked. WE NEED YOU. No officers, no guild. Literally!! It seems like we go through this every year and we always have people step up. This year, it is you.

A Message from Pat —

Our March meeting will be a time to visit, sew and help others. We will have a service work day starting at 9am. Bring your normal sewing items and machine and we will work on service quilts, etc. You may bring a lunch or step out for lunch and bring it back. We will have a short meeting at 1pm (including Show and Tell) followed by more sewing, and be finished by 3pm. See you there.

Pat Leistner
Day Chapter President

A Message from Connie —

The March 3rd Starlight Chapter Meeting will feature two parts. Martha, Mona, and Judi will show examples of wool applique and would like to have others share as well. Do you love wool? Show us please. The second part will have Mona talking about challenge quilts. A number of our members have submitted a quilt to a challenge. See Mona's article on Page 6.

Challenge Quilt Program

Half of the March Starlight meeting will be about challenge quilts. We need a selection of members' entries into various challenges for display that evening. Whether they are from a BTQG challenge (quilt show, eclipse, etc.), another guild's challenge or an online or national event (Quilting Arts, Hoffman, Cherrywood), any challenge quilt is welcome. It doesn't have to be a prize-winner to be worth seeing. Please contact Mona Stevenson to give her some background information on your quilt(s) by March 1. If you've completed your challenge quilt for the upcoming quilt show, let her know and plan to bring it to the March 3 meeting. Our theme for the challenge is "Everything Old is New Again." See the BTQG web site under "Quilt Show" or the July 2021 newsletter, Page 6, for the details.

QUILT SHOW UPDATE

It's official! A contract has been signed with the church. We are moving forward as planned!

Quilt Show T-shirts are available. If you have not yet ordered one, you may do so by e-mailing Kathryn Reece: kathrynreece24@gmail

Let her know the size and color (white or gray). This update: You may order a long-sleeved shirt if desired. We are waiting on a price confirmation from the supplier, but we expect them to be around $20. The short-sleeved ones are $15. If you ordered a short-sleeved one and want a long-sleeved one instead, please e-mail Kathryn. You may pay Kathryn at the in-person chapter meetings in March. If you are not able to attend the meetings, you can mail her a check now. Kathryn would like to turn in the order in early April.

BTQG earns money from ticket sales to the show and from ticket sales from the Opportunity Quilts, but we also earn money from our Marketplace at the Quilt Show. Items for the Marketplace come from our members! The Marketplace Committee is doing an amazing job! They have inspired us and have provided us with materials for projects. We have already received some very lovely items to sell! Keep making items for the Marketplace. September will be here before we know it! Watch for continued news and ideas from the committee. We will be planning a workshop day for Marketplace in the future. Thanks to everyone for their hard work so far!!!

— Peggy Brothers and Kathryn Reece, Quilt Show Co-Chairs
