BOONESLICK TRAIL QUILTERS' GUILD

CEO's Message

The July 11th Day Chapter Meeting was a Marketplace Workday....the room was packed and energy and good spirits were high! It was a great place to spend a few hours: sew a little, chat a little, and repeat. I had a guild member offer her expertise on the project I was working on and I was able to offer my expertise to another guild member on the project she had....and isn't that what it's all about? I was so busy that I never made it up to sign up for volunteer slots for the Quilt Show. If you find yourself in that same situation, I urge you to contact Mona Stevenson and grab a volunteer slot or two to help. Check out the Chapters page of the BTQG website (<https://btqg.missouri.org>) and see the incredible program line-up our Programs team members assembled for us! There's going to be something for everyone in the coming months!

A Message from Mona —

Thanks to all who sewed for the Marketplace at our July meeting. We're in countdown mode now, so all help is appreciated.

Some of you may remember this month's Day Chapter speaker, Lynn Doyle, from her trunk show and workshop for Starlight a number of years ago. Her designs are whimsical and often humorous, and her presentations are fun, so don't miss our next meeting. If you've not worked with fusible applique, consider signing up for her workshop. Patterns range from easy to moderate in difficulty, for those designs that have many pieces. Even if you've worked with fusibles before, participants are sure to have a great time and a project or two ready to layer and quilt. The cost is only that of the kit you choose to make. She believes in reasonable pricing, so you'll get plenty of bang for your buck. I love her fabric choices. Patterns and kits are sure to be available at the meeting, too.

I look forward to seeing you soon. Till then, keep cool and keep sewing.

— Mona Stevenson
Day Chapter President

A Message from Alice —

This month the Starlight Piecemakers Chapter will be sewing for the Quilt Show Marketplace. Machines will NOT be needed for the kits the committee will provide. You just need to bring your needles, thread, and hand-sewing accessories. You can also use this time to finish your own Marketplace projects. Doors will open at 6pm.

Unfortunately, I will not be at the meeting this month as I am committed to attending a conference out of town. Janet Hollandsworth will open the doors for me and the Marketplace committee will direct the work day. I look forward to seeing you all in September when we will have Laura Piland from Slice of Pi Quilts as our invited speaker.

— Alice Leeper
Starlight Chapter President

Starlight – Marketplace Workday

Here's another opportunity to make cute items for the quilt show Marketplace. Sewing machines are NOT required for these projects but you will want to bring your normal hand-sewing supplies.

Orphan Critters – These adorable animals will need to be stuffed and sewed shut. We'll provide the kits, but additional stuffing may be appreciated.

T-Shirt Dog Toys – T-shirt strips will be provided, but feel free to bring additional strips. T-shirts should be cut into 3" strips. These strips will be braided and knotted to form cute dog toys.

Wool Mistletoe – Wool will need to be cut and tied to form mistletoe. Wool will be provided, but additional wool in various greens and reds may be appreciated.

Service Projects Update

Lynn Hill and I have been very busy sewing and quilting charity quilts in Sturgeon. We have lots more ideas and energy to use.

During the guild Day Chapter workday in July, I had more tops turned in ready for quilting (any volunteers?) Fabric was donated and a large box of batting was donated (thank you, Janet). I had lots of lovely ladies help sew on labels and binding! I was overwhelmed!! Thank you! Now to get more kits cut and ready for the next meeting.

We are currently donating quilts to Ronald McDonald House, Rainbow House, True North and University Hospital/chemo quilts.

Also there is a need for pet blankets, quilts, and beds for the animal shelters. If anyone would like to make some, they also would be appreciated!

Have a great day and stay quilting,

Connie Richards

A big thank you... from those who cannot speak for themselves. These are some pet quilts and blankets I have been working on for donation to animal shelters. Your sewing scraps and remnants are just the right size for these items! Many thanks for the precut rectangles from the "Free" table!
