BOONESLICK TRAIL QUILTERS' GUILD

CEO's Message

"You're on my list!" is not a phrase associated with good feelings, is it? Most of my adult life has been ruled by My List. That's how I multi-task....and the older I get, the more important getting things added to my list has become. If it doesn't make it to my list, it probably won't get done. So, if I tell you that you're on my list, that's actually a good thing! I've always shied away from adding my family members to my list because it just seems like a good Mom, Grandmother, Daughter shouldn't have to schedule time away from work and other outside obligations (the tyranny of the urgent) to spend time with family members, but I have finally given myself permission to do what works for me. So, my family members have made it to my list, along with laundry, housework, longarm quilting, planting a garden, canning produce, filling out the tax organizer for the CPA, etc. It's important to figure out what works for you...and then let yourself do it!

A Message from Mona —

If you missed the January Zoom lecture, you missed some great inspiration for handling all those scraps that have been accumulating for a year – or two, or three.... Her ideas for storing scraps were practical and those for using scraps were colorful and fun. Some will make great service projects – I could hear the wheels turning in Connie's brain all the way here in Howard County. I hope some of us can get a project or two done for show and tell one of these days.

Our February meeting on the 6th will also be via Zoom at 1 PM. It will continue the scrap theme. Our speaker will come to us all the way from Dubai, where it will be 11 PM her time. Janel Schwartz is a certified teacher who will teach us about Scrappy Appliqué. She says this is a unique, quick, and fun raw-edge applique technique. It's an enjoyable process (continued on Page 4)

A Message from Alice —

I hope you enjoyed our Zoom meeting this month. I was really pleased that we had 49 members participate.

For February, if you would like to participate in the SHOW & TELL portion of the Zoom meeting, email me a picture of your quilt or project. My email is alice@aliceleeper.com – please try to get me your pictures no later than the day before. Let me know if your picture is for Starlight, Day Guild, or both meetings.

February's speaker will be Cindy Thury Smith. Her topic is Tips, Tricks, Techniques & Tales from 50 years of Quilt Making. Cindy has taught quilting all over the US and internationally. She has published numerous quilt designs and articles as well as co-authoring several books. As she says: "I love fabric. I love sewing. I live in Minnesota, therefore I am preoccupied with keeping warm. Given these facts, quiltsmak (continued on Page 4)

When I was in elementary school, my mother always insisted that I write a valentine for each student in my classroom. In the first grade, I had recently had an argument with another little girl in the class, and I didn't want to write one to her. My poor Mom counted the cards and read the class list over and over until she deduced who was missing. I reluctantly picked out the ugliest valentine card and scribbled the classmate's name on it. I also added a grape Tootsie-Pop, which was the one flavor I didn't like.

As an adult, I'm still embarrassed that I behaved that way! Does Valentine's Day bring up any special memories for you?

Board of Directors Monthly Meeting

From the Board Secretary:

Since there was no business in December, the Board voted by e-mail responses to not meet in December.

1. To accept the November minutes with one correction.
2. To accept the Treasurer's report.
3. To adjourn the meeting.

that is perfect for beginners and advanced quilters alike. Beginners love it because it is approachable, simple, and doesn't require much precision, and experienced quilters enjoy it because it is a very different/unique process with lots of creative possibilities. She adds, let's be honest -- we all have tons of scraps that we seldom use! Amen to that.

Last month I think the Starlight Chapter edged us on attendance. Let's see if we can pass them up this month. I'm sure we'll see some lovely quilts to further motivate us to tackle the scrap basket (drawer, tub, closet....). I hope to see you then.

Winter Retreat News

The cutoff date for winter retreat with the Lodge of Four Seasons is January 18th. By the time the newsletter is out it will be too late for signing up. The only way we could add someone is if someone has to cancel. If you miss this year, hopefully you will be able to come next year. It is always a fun time. I have created a mailing list just for the ladies going to retreat. I sent one about making a reservation if you would like to come Friday. You will be responsible for paying for your room. Your retreat fee only covers Saturday and Sunday nights. Now that the holidays are over and everything is packed away from Christmas hopefully you are ready to pack up everything in your sewing room and head to the LOFS. We are looking forward to it.

Getting To Know You

The membership committee would like to initiate “Meet & Greet” social occasions during odd months of the year. This is an optional activity for existing and new guild members to get to know each other and especially for new members, to have their questions answered about the guild or quilting techniques but were reluctant to ask in one of the large guild meetings. You may have received an email blast or read on Facebook inviting you to our first January “Meet & Greet”. The dates were Tuesday, January 10th at Starbucks in Hy-Vee on West Broadway from 11 am – 1 pm to enjoy the Lunch Hour Specials (discounted pricing on specialty drinks) and Wednesday, January 11th at Shakespeare’s on West Broadway from 6-8 pm. Our next one is scheduled for Tuesday, March 7th at Starbucks in Hy-Vee on West Broadway from 11 am – 1 pm and Wednesday, March 8th at Shakespeare’s on West Broadway from 6-8 pm. Locations may change in May, but everyone will be informed in plenty of time. No need to purchase anything, stay if you like or pop in to say “hello”. Please consider checking out one or all of the “Meet & Greets” to see what you think!

We would also like to develop a mentor program matching existing guild members with new guild members to enhance everyone’s experience in the guild. Again, this is an optional activity. Forms are included below to give you an idea of the concept. Printed copies will be available at the March guild meetings but if this interests you, print off the form from the newsletter and drop in the mail to me at 12690 N Route J, Harrisburg, MO 65256.

Please visit btqg.missouri.org for additional information about the guild. BTQG is only as strong as the commitment of its members!

Service Quilts

I have heard from many members that have been working on the Potato Chip blocks! That is great to hear, I hope you all are having fun with the kits and finding them not too stressful. We will be setting these blocks together into tops for charity quilts at both March meetings. We can sew more blocks at the meetings too. I have done several different layouts and they were all fun; or you can also set together a top, quilt and bind it before March, and surprise me! I can't wait to see them all! There are lots of variations that can be made also.

I took eight more quilts to Boo! two days before Christmas and she tells me that made for some happy faces! That's what it is all about, right?

WHY BUY FABRIC?

1. It insulates the cupboard where it is kept.
2. It keeps the economy moving. It is my duty to support the cotton farmers, textile mills and quilt/craft shops.
3. It is less expensive and more fun than psychiatric care.
4. I'm participating in a contest - the one who dies with the most fabric wins!
5. It keeps without refrigeration, you don't have to cook to enjoy it, you never have to feed it, change it, wipe its nose or walk it.
6. Because I am worth it.
7. Like dust, it's good protection for previously empty spaces in the house - like the ironing board, laundry basket, dining table.
8. It's not immoral, illegal or fattening. It calms the nerves, gratifies the soul and makes me feel good.
9. Because it's on sale!
10. Buy it now, before your husband retires and goes with you on all your shopping expeditions.
