BOONESLICK TRAIL QUILTERS' GUILD

CEO's Message

I generally don't get much done on my quilt projects during the summer months. I spend my time on my tomato garden and canning the produce as well as taking my 6-year-old grandson fishing. He and I have been struggling to find a good time to go fishing these past couple of weeks. It's either too muddy, raining, or too cold. I have picked the last of my tomatoes and have my fingers crossed that the green ones will continue to ripen. Now is the time to focus back on my quilt projects. My husband is gutting our family room in the process of turning it into a sewing room for me (away from the longarm machines). Which UFO project should I work on first? English paper-piecing hexies? Needle turn applique quilt by Edyta Sitar? The Buttermilk Basin wool door hanger project? Or should I stop collecting red fabrics and make the ladybug quilt for my granddaughter before she's too old to want a ladybug quilt? Each of us are multi-faceted in our interests, hobbies, and obsessions. At the next guild meeting you attend, ask the person seated next to you about their interests....you might find you have something in common...and have a good time!

A Message from Mona —

Our speaker for Monday, November 7 is Robyn Revelle Gagg. Her program will be "Expressions of Creativity – Or – Not Your Grandma's Quilts". Robyn has a diverse portfolio of quilts, including traditional and modern styles, portraits, and whole cloth quilts. Lately, she has been enjoying perfecting her style, while quilting as a competitive sport, by entering quilt contests all over the U.S., and winning some ribbons along the way. Robyn lives in Lone Jack, MO. She and her husband will also have some magnets for sale – sounds like possible Secret Sister gifts to me.

That day is just prior to the general election. As of this writing, we will meet in our usual place and have our usual Sit 'n Sew. (The last Sit 'n Sew until March, so come early and visit while you work on a project.) The set-up of the election equipment is scheduled for late

A Message from Alice —

Happy Halloween!

Is it possible to eat too much chocolate? I wonder?

Our November speaker will be our own Dawn Heese of Linen Closet Designs – Author, Teacher, Pattern & Fabric Designer. Dawn will be presenting a truck show entitled "Plain & Fancy Quilts" based upon her newest book of the same name published by Martingale in September. She'll have books to sell. Hope she brings the new one!

Quilt Show Wrap-Up Report

After four years we had a quilt show again! The 155 quilts were amazing!! Here are some of the highlights:

Approximately 372 people attended with ticket sales of $1,860.

Silent Auction yielded $1,000.

Ticket sales for the Opportunity Quilts brought in $839.

Market Place sales totaled $7,500.

Total income for the the quilt show was $11,205. Expenses for the show were $2,289 which gave us a net profit of $8,915.

Lana Bartlett of Columbia won the "Whimsical Garden" opportunity quilt.

Diane Gorski of State College, Pennsylvania won the "Blizzard Buddies" opportunity quilt.

Debbie Odor won the Small Quilt Viewer's Choice Award with "Winter Tree."

Peggy Brothers won the Large Viewer's Choice Award with "Lollypop Trees."

We owe many thanks to many people!!! Thank you to EVERYONE who entered quilts, made marketplace items, and/or worked at the show!

We could not have done it without all your help! Thank you to everyone who chaired and helped with the various committees involved with making the show possible:

Linda Karns, Debbie Odor, and Judi Kirkpatrick of the layout committee for their hours and hours of work to make it all happen.

Martha Eberhard, Barb Nixon, and Hank Botts who gave us the most incredible marketplace ever.

Kat Reece and her husband who painted all of our rusting pole stands.

Willie Morris' husband, Steve, Trina Pratt and Karen Huggler for obtaining and cutting carpet squares to protect the floors.

Alice Leeper, Susan Shannon, and Quilt 4U for their donations.

Happy Birthday!!!

Nov. 2 Pat Hilderbrand	Nov. 11 Marilyn Beissenherz
Nov. 2 Maggie Walter	Nov. 11 Carolyn Keith
Nov. 4 Dorothy Leeper	Nov. 25 Paula Smith
Nov. 10 Wanda Marvel

Lora Brinkman for doing the programs.
 Ustena Simenson for doing silent auction and helping with set-up.
 Alice Leeper for help with advertising and set-up.
 Willie Morris and all who helped her with registration and checking the quilts in and out.
 Mona Stevenson for organizing the challenge quilt and the volunteers at the show.
 Dianne Jackson for help with t-shirts and small quilts set-up.
 Lynn Hill for the demonstrations at the show.
 Connie Richards for the service projects display.
 Amy Reilly for help with all the finances.
 Sassy Stitchers and the Redwork Group for the Opportunity Quilts.
 All the volunteers and family members who helped with set-up and tear-down.
 Fairview Road Church of Christ for graciously letting us use their facility.

In the end, seeing all the quilts at the show made it all worthwhile! As co-chairs, it was amazing seeing it all come together.

Thank you again to everyone!

Kat Reece and Peggy Brothers, Quilt Show Co-Chairs

Serving Up Love From BTQG Service Projects

Wow, it's already November! Now that the quilt show is over (and what a show!!) I will start bringing in kits to sew tops, and quilts that will need binding or labels. If you can come to Sit 'n Sew on Monday, Nov 7 at 9am, bring your sewing machine/sewing supplies. If you want to try quilting a top on your domestic sewing machine, email me at richardscs60@gmail.com and I will bring a top/batting/backing for you to use. New members can also participate! We can help you get started, and they are all easy patterns. If you have any neutral fabrics you'd like to give, please bring them; we can use them to bring together the many colorful prints already donated.

I brought 12 adult quilts and 5 child quilts to our Day Chapter meeting in October and gave them to Boo! Kula; she delivered them to the chemotherapy clinic at University Hospital. This was our first time to donate quilts for younger chemo patients, as the clinic had asked if we could make some. The nurses were most appreciative! Boo! sees their joy each time she makes a delivery there. It takes a village, but your efforts will make someone smile!

We share Service Project quilts with several other local organizations, and everyone will be requesting more of them as the weather turns colder. There is plenty of work to do as we serve others with our quilting. Whether you can make an entire quilt, or give your time to stitch on a label, or donate material or supplies for Service Projects to use, it will all help to cheer and comfort someone in our community.

Thank you all who have helped me with fabric/batting donations, sewing, quilting, binding and labels!

See you soon,

Connie Richards

A Possible New Interest Group on Medallion Quilts

Now that we are more directed to indoor activities I want to start a new interest group on Medallion Quilts. It is an area of expertise for me. The information would cover planning a medallion quilt, meeting monthly to help with the process. The hope is that at each meeting we can move people forward with a new frame/border for the quilt. There will be no sewing at the meetings. Members can make suggestions, solve design problems and plan the quilt as it evolves. The first meeting will be in January.

Contact me by phone or email if you are interested. The day and time will depend on the consensus of those who are interested.

Save The Date! Starlight Holiday Party is December 1st!

This was accidentally printed with an incorrect date in the 2022-2023 Membership Directory. Our party will be held on December 1st. Stay tuned for more details as plans are made. Please contact Alice Leeper if you can volunteer to help in any way!

Sew "Bee" Happy Update

Sign-ups for winter retreat are coming in every day. The registration form and secret sister form are in the October newsletter. Fees are $230 for a double/triple room and $335 for a single room. You can reserve your spot by paying the full amount or with a $75 deposit by December 1st. You must reserve your spot by December 1st if you plan to participate in secret sister. If you send a partial payment, the remainder will be due the first week in January. Your check should be made payable to BTQG. Hope you can come as it will "bee" a fun time.

afternoon. We can help them out by returning our folding chairs to the storage rack, for those of who are able to do so. Their set-up time may be moved up some, so we'll try to have a short business meeting to give our speaker plenty of time to show her work. If there are significant changes to our agenda, you'll receive an e-Blast.
Happy Halloween and see you on November 7th.
